AMENDED AND RESTATED
ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
WASHINGTON STATE MEDICAL ASSOCIATION FOUNDATION FOR HEALTH CARE IMPROVEMENT

A Non-Profit Corporation

ARTICLE I

The name of the corporation shall be Washington State Medical Association Foundation for Health Care Improvement.

ARTICLE II

The chief place of business of such corporation shall be 2033 Sixth Avenue, Suite 1100, Seattle, King County, Washington.

ARTICLE III

The Specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is formed are:

- (a) To help physicians understand and adapt to on-going changes in health care delivery and reimbursement by working with medical groups and physicians' practices to (i) support information-based care; (ii) promote best practices; (iii) promote reductions in unsupportable variations in care; (iv) improve patient safety; and (v) education physicians on how to meet these goals.
- (b) To engage in and carry on and carry out scientific research and research projects in the public interest in the fields of medical science, medical economics, public health, sociology, and related areas.
- (c) To support medical education and medical schools through the media of, but not confined to, grants and scholarships for the purpose of improving and developing both the quality, quantity, and availability of medical education and for the purpose of improving and developing the capabilities of those individuals studying, teaching and practicing medicine, and to engage in the instruction of the general public in the area of medical science and related areas useful to the individual and beneficial to the community.
- (d) To make gifts and contributions to one or more organizations described as follows:

“Corporations, and any community chest, fund, or foundation, organized and operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, testing for public safety, literary, or educational purposes, or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, no substantial part of the activities of which is carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and which does not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office..."

- (e) To do and engage in any and all lawful activities which may be identical or reasonably necessary to any of the foregoing powers or purposes, and to have and exercise all other powers and authority now or hereinafter conferred upon nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Washington.
- (f) Provided, that in all events and under all circumstances, and notwithstanding merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution or winding up of this corporation, voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law, or amendment of the Articles of Incorporation, the following provisions shall apply:
 - 1. No part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it in any manner or to any extent participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements), any political campaign on behalf of any candidate of public office; nor shall it engage in any activities which are unlawful under the laws of the United States of America, or the State of Washington, or any other jurisdiction where such activities are carried on.
 - 2. This corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit. Neither the whole, nor any part or portion, of the assets or net earnings of this corporation shall be used, nor shall this corporation ever be organized or operated for purposes which are not exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational.
 - 3. No compensation or payments shall ever be paid or made to any member, officer, director, trustee, creator or organizer of this corporation, except as a reasonable allowance for actual expenditures or services actually made or rendered to or for this corporation; and neither the whole nor any part or portion of the assets or net earnings, current or cumulative, of this corporation shall ever be distributed to or divided among such persons.
- (g) To accept and hold as assets of the corporation any moneys or other properties which any person, trust, partnership or corporation may offer to the corporation as a contribution to its capital without the contributor thereby acquiring any interest in the corporate affairs or its assets; provided, however, that the Board of Directors shall have the right to reject the proffer of any asset, the acceptance of which, in its sole judgment, would not be in the best interests of the corporation in the light of its purposes.

(h) In the event of termination, dissolution or winding up of this corporation in any manner or for any reason whatsoever, its remaining assets, if any, shall be deemed held in trust to be distributed to (and only to) one or more organizations described in subparagraph (c) above.

(i) The foregoing statement of purposes shall be construed as a statement of both purposes and powers, and the purposes and powers made in each clause shall, except where otherwise expressed, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms or provisions of any other clause, but shall be regarded as independent purposes and powers. In connection with the foregoing purposes, this corporation shall have the power to transact any and all business, engage in any and all activities, and do any and all things which are lawful for nonprofit corporation under the laws of the State of Washington, subject to the limitations contained in the preceding subparagraphs of Article III.

ARTICLE IV

This corporation is organized pursuant to Chapter 24.03 of Revised Code of Washington. There shall be no stock in this corporation. Those persons duly elected in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and By-laws of the Washington State Medical Association as members of the Board of Trustees of the Washington State Medical Association shall immediately and automatically become members of this corporation. The Board of Directors of this corporation shall be elected by the members at the annual meeting. The first Board of Directors shall be those persons elected by the Board of Trustees of the Washington State Medical Association. The Board of Directors of this corporation at their annual meeting shall elect from their membership a president, vice president, secretary and treasurer: Provided that one person may hold more than one office. The officers shall be elected for a period of one year. The By-laws to be adopted by the corporation shall provide for the number of Directors.

ARTICLE V

This corporation is not organized for, nor is it to be operated for, profit; it shall be administered and operated exclusively for the purposes described in Article III hereof. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual or member, whether upon dissolution or otherwise. The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated primarily to educational and scientific purposes, and upon the liquidation or dissolution of this corporation, or the abandonment of its assets, no part of such assets shall be distributed to, or shall inure to the benefit of, any private person.

ARTICLE VI

The Articles of Incorporation may be amended, from time to time, in as many respects as desired, provided that the amended Articles of Incorporation contain only such provisions as are lawful under Chapter 24.03 of the Revised Code of Washington.

In order to amend the Articles of Incorporation, the Board of Directors shall adopt a resolution setting forth the proposed amendment, and directing that the proposed amendment be submitted to a vote at a meeting of members having voting rights. Such a meeting may be the annual meeting or a special meeting. Notice of the meeting in the form of a record setting forth the proposed amendment, or a summary of the changes to be effected by the proposed amendment, shall be given to the members by mail or by email communication. Notice shall be given at least ten (10) days before an annual meeting of the members, or forty-eight (48) hours before the time of a special meeting of the members. The proposed amendment must be approved by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the votes which members present at such meeting are entitled to cast.

The Articles of Amendment adopted by the members shall be executed by an officer of the corporation and shall set forth: (i) the name of the corporation; (ii) the amendment so adopted; (iii) a statement setting forth: (a) the date of the meeting of the members at which the amendment was adopted; (b) that a quorum was present at such meeting; and (c) that the amendment was approved by at least two-thirds (2/3) of the votes which members present at the meeting were entitled cast. If the amendment was adopted by consent in form of a record executed by all members entitled to vote, rather than by individual votes, the required statement shall so indicate. The Articles of Amendment shall be delivered to the Secretary of State, with any applicable fees, for review, endorsement, and filing by the Secretary of State if the Articles of Amendment conform to law.
