Selection Criteria and Terms of Award:

The Rudolph David Roller Educational Charitable Trust (the Trust) provides funds to students seeking a "Catholic Education" from any institution of their choice. This scholarship may be used to obtain an education from any school for the arts, sciences, letters or practical arts. Selected applicants must demonstrate that they have excelled in previous academic or vocational undertakings.

If selected as a scholarship recipient, the applicant must consent to give the Trust access to applicants grades as they are rendered. In the event that applicant is pursuing a program that does not render grades (such as a doctoral program), applicant must arrange for periodic progress reports to be rendered by applicant's supervising instructor. To continue to receive the support of this Trust, applicant must receive passing grades or satisfactory progress reports for every period during which applicant received tuition.
