Form 990 Part VI Section A #6 and #7a:

As a cooperative, Lane Electric is owned by our member/owners who exercise their control by electing a total of 7 board members by residential district. The 7 board members are elected from four Board Districts to each serve a three-year term.

Form 990 Part VI Section B #11A:

The completed Form 990 is presented to the cooperative's Board of Directors for review during the monthly board meeting prior to being filed. All disclosures and significant changes from the prior year are highlighted and discussed.

Form 990 Part VI Section B #12c:

Any potential conflicts of interest including its nature and effects that may exist shall be declared in advance by the individual in order to save him or herself any official action involving the conflict. Monitoring and identifying such situations is the responsibility of the individual, the President of the Board, and the Board as a whole. Monitoring and enforcement of compliance with policies as they relate to employees is the responsibility of the cooperative's General Manager. Annually the cooperative provides questionnaires to its members of the board, officers, key, and highly compensated employees. This provides a means to disclose and obtain detailed information regarding the individual relationships reportable personnel may have with the cooperative's affiliates giving rise to a potential conflict of interest.

Form 990 Part VI Section B #15b:

Compensation for the cooperative's General Manager is set annually by the Board of Directors. This is discretionary based on performance to the extent it falls within the established range. This range is developed and reviewed every 3 (three) years based on averages and compiled from both industry surveys and information obtained from comparable utilities. Each such review is consistent in its inclusion of the relevant data. Compensation for managers and key employees is conducted in the same fashion, however, the decision is made by the cooperative's General Manager.
