A corporation may not amend its articles of incorporation to change the names and addresses of the first directors, incorporators or the initial registered agent of the entity.

Each amended article must be written in its entirety.

5. Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation are as follows:

A. General Purposes
The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.
Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one of more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state of location government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of by the Common Pleas Court of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE III

OBJECTS AND PURPOSES FOR WHICH FORMED

The objects and purposes for which the Corporation is formed are as follows:

A. General Purposes

The organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and/or scientific purposes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one of more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state of location government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of by the Common Pleas Court of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

B. Ancillary Purposes

To do everything necessary, proper and advisable or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes hereinabove set forth, and to do all other things incidental to them or connected with them that are not forbidden by the Alaska Non-Profit Corporation Act, by other law, or by these Articles of Incorporation.

C. To Carry Out These Purposes in Other States

To carry out the purposes hereinabove set forth in any state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or in any foreign country, to the extent that these purposes are not forbidden by the law of the state, territory, district, or possession of the United States, or by the foreign country.

D. Limited Non-Profit Corporate Purposes

This Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distribution under 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).
