Important Realized Gain/Loss Information

This information is provided for courtesy purposes only. Each individual taxpayer should consult with a tax advisor as to any additional reporting requirements or adjustments. NO COST BASIS OR REALIZED GAIN/LOSS INFORMATION IS PROVIDED TO THE IRS, NOR IS THIS INFORMATION VERIFIED OR GUARANTEED BY FIRST CLEARING, LLC TO BE ACCURATE FOR EACH TAXPAYER'S UNIQUE REPORTING REQUIREMENTS. THEREFORE, YOU SHOULD NEVER ASSUME THIS STATEMENT IS ACCURATE IN LIEU OF COMPLETING SCHEDULE D OF YOUR TAX RETURN AND CONSULTING WITH YOUR TAX ADVISOR.

Federal tax reporting requirements will create differences between the information presented here and what appears on your Form 1099-B, including but not limited to the following situations:

- * Cost basis for many fixed income tax lots has been amortized (for securities purchased at a premium) or accreted (for securities purchased at a discount), when possible, for applicable securities. For securities that were purchased at an Original Issue Discount (OID), only those positions whose cost basis has been adjusted will reflect the impacts of the OID accruals on the original cost basis. The original issue discount amount reported on your Form 1099-OID is not adjusted for market discount, acquisition premium or bond premium. Therefore, the amortization and accretion adjustments used on this statement may not be consistent with the Form 1099-OID amount because the reporting requirements on the Form 1099-OID are different.
- * The Original Price represents the unadjusted price of the security. The Original Price can be used to calculate the original unadjusted cost of the security.
- * Short sales are reportable on Form 1099-B before the position is closed.
- * Long-term capital gains reported by a RIC or REIT appear on Form 1099-DIV only, as noted in the instructions for that form.
- * Lots closed due to transfers or journals will not be reflected in the Realized Gain/Loss Statement, or on the Form 1099-B.

The Schedule of Realized Gains and Losses is not reported to the IRS. This Schedule may not reflect all cost basis adjustments necessary for tax reporting purposes; for example, it does not reflect disallowed losses from wash sale events. Adjustments to cost basis may have been made for prior income received and subsequently reclassified by the issuer as a return of capital. Typically these adjustments are received after year-end and there may be differences in cost basis reflected on your monthly client brokerage statement at year end versus any subsequent reports or online displays you may have available to you. Return of capital information has been obtained from sources we believe to be reliable.

When you report your cost basis on your tax return, it should be verified with your own records. There may be other adjustments which you need to make and you should consult with your tax advisor in order to properly report your gain or loss for tax purposes. Pershing shall not be responsible for and makes no representations or warranties with respect to the accuracy of any information that you report to the IRS or other taxing authorities, and, accordingly, disclaims any and all liability that may arise with respect to your use and reliance on the information provided herein for such reporting.

Cost basis on fixed income securities is adjusted for amortization, accretion or principal paydowns. These calculations will not be performed under certain circumstances, including those involving continuously callable bonds, foreign bonds, variable rates, bonds in default, index-linked bonds, bonds sold short or bonds that have a negative yield.

Performance inception date is the date from which your performance and the benchmark performance is calculated. Your Performance Inception Value is the value of your holdings on this date
