Louisiana Children's Medical Center (LCMC) is a 509(a)(3) organization, and it supports Touro Infirmary and Childrens Hospital. LCMC's financial statements are consolidated with CH and TI, who both have calendar year end financial statements and file Form 990 with calendar year ends.

LCMC was incorporated on July 13, 2009, in the state of Louisiana, and provides management services and support to Touro Infirmary and Childrens Hospital.

When 990-EZ was prepared for the first year, LCMC filed as fiscal year and cash basis taxpayer. At the time it was prepared there had been no activity for this entity on a cash method. The initial return reflected no income or expenses and no assets or liabilities on the balance sheet. However, as LCMC became operational it became more apparent that its financial reporting should have been on the calendar year basis in order to be in sync with the two hospitals.

FORM 1128, APPLICATION TO CHANGE A TAX YEAR

Since these are tax-exempt entities, there has been no deferral of income by LCMC. Changing LCMC to a calendar year will not have a detrimental effect. Changing LCMC to a calendar year will allow all three entities to be on the same year end with the same accounting. This will preclude any opportunity to defer income.

On the initial Form 990-EZ, the method of accounting was reported as the cash receipts and disbursements method. A Form 3115 has been submitted to change the overall method of accounting to the accrual method. This will enable LCMC to have the same overall method of accounting as TI and CH, the entities it supports.

The primary purpose of LCMC will be to create, maintain, and grow health care services in New Orleans consistent with the charitable mission of the LCMC affiliates. LCMC will provide the above functions to the System Entities so that the entities in turn can focus their efforts on carrying out their exempt purposes. To that end, the executive management of the System and their support staff and systems will be centralized at LCMC. LCMC's activities will be exclusively limited to providing support services to the System. The revenue of LCMC will be derived from management fees received from the System Entities. LCMC will lease office space from Children's and pay rent to Children's at fair market value. While Children's and Touro are both tax exempt organizations, some of the affiliates and/or subsidiaries of Children's and Touro are for-profit entities. Any services provided to such entities will be at the express direction and for the benefit of Children's and Touro.
