them; Providing them with the tools necessary to build better lives and neighborhoods; Addressing the systemic causes of poverty through advocacy.

Form 990, Part III, Line 2, New Program Services:

The After School Program was added to assist struggling students at Immaculate Conception Elementary School by providing them with tutoring services and assisting families with food product necessary for the preparation of nutritional meals.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Senior Pantry Program provided 125,967 pounds of fresh groceries
through our weekly distribution for extremely low-income seniors age 60+. Seniors also socialize with peers, play bingo, sing, have lunch, attend workshops on health risks, diet, nutrition, medical benefits and insurance and tax assistance offered by our partners. The program is the only social activity many of them will have all week long.

Community Forums address social issues and empowers the community through education and advocacy and give our clients and local agencies a platform to address family and community issues on topics such as tenants' rights, citizenship and displacement. The monthly Community Forums are supported through our partnerships.

Hygiene Station offered toiletries, clothing including new undergarments and socks for the homeless.

Health Services offered 343 patients with free curative medical care, prescriptions, wound care and referrals through Clinica Monsenor Oscar Romero monthly. The clinic practices general medicine treating everything from severe blisters to tuberculosis, guests with chronic and serious conditions are given an appointment our partner's free clinic.

Mail Service provided a secure mailing address for our clients to receive their mail. Being homeless is more than lacking a bed to sleep in. It is a loss of a permanent address for job applications, financial assistance, and family contact. The inability to even rent a post office box severely alienates homeless from the rest of the world and keeps them from reentering society.
