| Pt I Line 2 |                  | The Foundation requires an eligibility test for all applications requesting assistance. This test is used to determine if the applicant meets the Organizations stated guidelines found on its Website.                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|             |                  | The organization seeks out applicants which best further its commitment to support grassroots community and school projects as well as allow it to enhance its relationship with various charitable organizations.                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
|             |                  | All applications are submitted on-line and reviewed by volunteers who determine which agencies or nonprofit organizations best meet the aforementioned mantra. The Foundation is overseen by a board of trustees consisting of representatives from Lowe's Companies, Inc. who work in various roles within that Company whereby supplying diversity of thought, leadership and experience to further enhance the Foundation's work. |
