2010 Form 990, Part VI Governance, Management, and Disclosure, Lines 6 and 7:

There are three classes of membership in Word of Life (WOL). Associate and Affiliate forms of membership are for those who desire to explore or share in the life of the community in a limited way. Associate and Affiliate members do not participate in the formal decision-making of the community. Underway membership is for those who have participated in the life of the community in a limited way for some time previously. The third class of membership is Public Commitment. Publicly Committed members state publicly a desire and sincere intention to abide by the covenant of the community. They participate in the formal decision-making of the community. Publicly Committed members must approve by 2/3 vote: (1) any substantive change in the covenant of the community, (2) any substantive change in what is required to be a member in good standing, and (3) any substantive changes in the constitution of the community. Publicly Committed members elect or confirm the appointment of leaders and the President in accordance with the constitution and by-laws of the community.

2010 Form 990, Part VI Governance, Management, and Disclosure, Line 8:

The governing body does not document every meeting held or every course of action undertaken. They thoroughly review issues before making decisions, but do not regularly document those decisions or who made them. At the beginning of each fiscal year, the board of directors approve the minutes of the previous year.

2010 Form 990, Part VI Governance, Management, and Disclosure, Line 11:

The return preparer sends the final version of form 990 and its applicable schedules to the Assistant Treasurer before it is filed. The Assistant Treasurer reviews it, and mails it to the IRS. An electronic file of form 990 and its schedules are provided to the chairman of the Finance Committee. The chairman reviews the parts of form 990 that ask questions and contain narrative explanations. Other than that, no other board member undertakes any review of the form either before or after the filing.
