To raise and invest funds that will then be used to benefit the programs and services of Jenkins Living Center, Inc.

If "Yes," describe these new services on Schedule O

If "Yes," describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization's three largest program services by expenses
Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

During the fiscal year which ended on March 31, 2011, the Jenkins Living Center Foundation conducted activities consistent with its mission of raising and investing funds to benefit the programs and services of Jenkins Living Center, Inc. The major fundraising event which took place during the year was the annual Valentine Gala, which netted approximately $16,854. All funds raised by the Foundation are split between a Project Fund and a Resident Support Fund. Expenditures from either of these funds are made at the request of administration, and only after approval has been granted by the Board of Directors. During the fiscal year ended March 31, 2011, the Foundation funded an annual educational scholarship, and continued to be the primary funding source for a program called Heart's Delight. This program grants wishes or desires to the nursing home residents at Jenkins Living Center, with nominations coming from nursing home staff, residents, and resident family members. The Foundation funded project Heart's Delight on behalf of Jenkins Living Center residents in the amount of $3,758.

Facts and Circumstance	Form 990, Schedule A	Facts and Circumstances to be Considered a Publicly Supported Organization Under 509(a)(1) Jenkins Living Center Foundation fails to meet the public support test for the years ended March 31, 2007 through March 31, 2011. However, based on the following facts and circumstances, the organization should continue to be recognized as a publicly supported organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1) Ten-Percent of Support. The total amount of public support for the organization during the above mentioned period is 32.67%. Therefore, the total public support is greater than the required 10%. Attraction of Public Support The organization did not receive more than 33 1/3% of its support from government units or from contributions from the general public during the above mentioned time period. However, starting in the fiscal year end of 2006 the organization implemented an annual fundraising event which occurs on Valentine's Day. During the fiscal year 2011, the organization made continuous efforts to carry out this fundraising activity. The brochures featuring the organization's fundraising event were printed and distributed to solicit contributions from public. Sources of Support Jenkins Living Center Foundation does not receive support from a single family, rather it receives support from members of the general public. The organization received a portion of its support from individuals in the community. Representative Governing Body Jenkins Living Center Foundation is served by a governing body that represents the interest of the public, it does not represent the interests of the donors of Jenkins Living Center Foundation. These representatives ensure that the organization meets the needs of the community. Based on the above facts and circumstances, Jenkins Living Center Foundation should continue to be considered as publicly supported under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1).
