PART XII, LINE 2D		This amount represents the expenses at the gala events
PART X, LINE 2	FIN 48	Effective in 2009, the Campaign adopted new guidance that creates a single model to address uncertainty in tax positions and clarifies the accounting for income taxes by prescribing the minimum recognition threshold a tax position is required to meet before being recognized in its financial statements. Under the requirements of this guidance, organizations could now be required to record an obligation as the result of tax positions they have historically taken on various tax exposure items. The impact of the adoption of this guidance did not have a material effect on the financial statements of the Campaign. Prior to the adoption of this guidance, the determination of when to record a liability for a tax exposure was based on whether a liability was considered probable and reasonably estimable in accordance with guidance concerning recording of contingencies.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
SCHEDULE I	PART IV	Procedures for Monitoring U S Grants The Campaign for Tobacco-Free Kids (CFTFK) domestic grant program supports the tobacco control efforts of 501(c)(3) nonprofits throughout the United States through both general-purpose and project-specific grants In both cases, grants are given only to organizations that CFTFK has worked with in the past and will continue to be working with on an ongoing basis This familiarity with grant recipients, and the continuing working relationships, makes grant oversight much easier and more direct To effectively control and monitor the recipient's use of the grant funds, the Campaign also maintains the following policies & procedures Grant applications are solicited, primarily by the CFTFK team of Regional Advocacy Directors, from suitable 501(c)(3) nonprofits that the Regional Advocacy Directors have worked with in the past and will be working with in the future In the case of CFTFK's non-lobbying project-specific grants, the CFTFK team of Regional Advocacy Directors works in conjunction with staff from the American Cancer Society and the American Heart Association Each grant proposal is submitted on forms provided by CFTFK that require detailed information to allow for a careful evaluation of the grant proposal and the recipients ability to use the grant funds effectively, as well as formal confirmation of the applicant's 501(c)(3) status General purpose grant applications are evaluated by the Regional Advocacy Directors, the Vice-President for State Issues and other relevant CFTFK staff, sometimes in consultation with others familiar with the applicant The project-specific grants are evaluated by the same CFTFK personnel in monthly teleconference discussions that also include management-level representatives from the aforementioned organizations After clarifying any issues raised relating to a proposal, including possible revisions to the proposal, those reviewing the application recommend whether or not the grant should be made The proposals and related grant documents for recommended grants are reviewed by the CFTFK Vice President for State Issues, General Counsel, and Vice President for Finance & Administration Upon their approval, the grant letter (for general purpose grants) or grant agreement (for project-specific grants) is submitted to CFTFK's President for final approval and signature, with project grant agreements also signed by a legally authorized representative of the grantee After the check is disbursed, the relevant Campaign Regional Advocacy Director works with the grantee on an ongoing basis to confirm that the grant funds are used consistently with the grant agreement The general purpose grant letters provide that the funds may be used only for activities 501(c)(3) nonprofits may legally engage in and must be used for the general purpose of preventing and reducing tobacco use or its harms The project-specific grant agreements are much more detailed and restrictive, requiring that the funds not only be used solely for activities 501(c)(3) nonprofits may legally engage but also only to promote the grant project, pursuant to the provided budget CFTFK may provide a domestic grant explicitly for direct or grassroots lobbying purposes - either to 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(4) nonprofits - in which case CFTFK counts that expenditure toward its lobbying limits Similar procedures and oversight as those described above apply to any such grants, with additional attention to ensuring compliance with any applicable laws relating to lobbying activities

PART VI, SECTION B, LINE 11		The Finance & Administration staff, in consultation with our outside accounting firm, prepare the 990 form each year. Additionally, the organization's counsel reviews the form 990. Once it is completed and approved by the Vice-President for Finance & Administration and the President, it is presented to the Finance Committee of the Board of Directors (which includes the Treasurer) along with key underlying data and records. The Finance Committee is given ready access to relevant staff as well as the accounting firm in the event that the Committee has questions or wants to review any data or records that were not initially provided. The Board Members are provided a copy of the form 990 prior to it being submitted to the IRS.
