highest attainable level for independent and productive living.

Residential patients are under the careful supervision of a comprehensive, interdisciplinary team comprised of physicians, neurophysiologists, behavioral specialist, speech-language pathologist, physical and occupational therapists, nurses, and clinical case managers.

In this intensive therapeutic environment, the therapy team uses a variety of rehabilitative strategies to maximize each patient's full potential. Focus is placed on physical restoration of functions, cognitive skill building, social/behavioral shaping, community and psychological social adjustment with the goal of reintegration into the home and community.

Family members are participate, if appropriate, alongside our professionals to fully witness and understand the necessary techniques to facilitate a smooth transition and to prepare them for their role in the individuals future care needs. While therapies take place at the Transitional Living Center campus, patients also interact in "real life" surroundings. Community sites are incorporated to practice skills in functional situations and to facilitate a transition to the site of discharge.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

The 990 was reviewed by independent accounting firm for accuracy and completeness. After which time, a paper copy of the 990 is made available for one week for review by the Board of Directors. Each member of the Board of Directors is encouraged to review the 990 prior to its eventual filing with the IRS. A schedule is maintained of all Board of Directors who review the 990.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts
