|-------------------|---|--|
| F990_P06_S0B_L12c | Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c | At the beginning of each summer, the Secretary of the Board mails to all College Trustees and Officers a questionnaire asking them to disclose any related party transactions with the College. A total of seven questions are asked. The questionnaire contains a brief description of what a related party transaction is. A memorandum also accompanies the questionnaire. The memorandum explains the necessity of completing the related party questionnaire, and emphasizes the fact that the College expects a 100% response. In addition, to the questionnaire and memorandum, the trustees and officers also receive a two page instructional document which explains in simple terms what a conflict of interest is and why full disclosure of a real or perceived conflict of interest is important. This document also includes a number of recommendations on the subject put forth by the Massachusetts Attorney General. Once completed, the questionnaires are returned to the Secretary of the Board, who monitors the responses and follows up with those trustees and officers who are tardy in completing and returning their questionnaire. |
