Research: CCP researched, developed and analyzed public policy that impacts the health and welfare of New Mexicans. We conducted research and helped develop policies on health care reform that would increase access and affordability; researched and analyzed policies on reducing global warming, taxation and economic development and ethics in government.^ Public Education: Educated the public throughout the year about numerous health and welfare issues in NM, including the environment, ethical government, the economy, the state budget and health care utilizing op-eds, letter to the editor, radio ads, and mailers.^ Civic Participation: Worked in the fiscal year to increase civic participation. Get Out the Vote program for the city election. Through phone calls, we encouraged many young people and traditionally disenfranchised individuals to vote. Additionally, conducted a leadership training program for youth interns.
