AAF travel reimbursement policies meet the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service to protect both AAF and participating individuals from violation of the tax regulations. The core of the AAF expense reporting system is the travel expense voucher. The voucher is designed to provide relevant information on the total cost of a trip. A general rule for completing the expense report is to provide complete information on all expenses. There cannot be too much documentation. Each person traveling or attending meeting on AAF business should be budget and expense control minded.
