SchI_P01_S00_L02	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Each year, Albany Law School awards a number of merit and diversity scholarships funded from restricted and unrestricted endowment funds, annual giving by alumni and friends, and other sources. The Admissions Committee awards the scholarships to first year students in the form of three year scholarships in varying amounts. Financial Aid personnel, in conjunction with Development and Business Office personnel, is responsible for monitoring compliance with donor restrictions associated with endowment funds. All scholarships are merit-based and awarded on the basis of academic promise and individual characteristics that strengthen the applicant pool. The Admissions Committee also offers merit-based scholarships to students from diverse backgrounds including those minorities who, historically, have been under-represented in the legal profession. A scholarship may be retained from year to year without re-application upon achievement of grades set forth as conditions of the award. Monitoring of continued awarding for second and third year students is performed by the Financial Aid Office in conjunction with the Registrar's Office.

F990_P06_S0B_L11a	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 11a	A review of the public portions of the 990 tax return (Schedule B details are not reviewed) is first conducted by the Vice President for Finance and Business with the Audit Committee and President at a regularly scheduled meeting of the Audit Committee. This review highlights significant aspects of the return. Subsequent to the Audit Committee meeting, a copy of the public portions of the 990 tax return (Schedule B is not included) is provided to each voting Board member, in addition to a summary of the Audit Committee's review of the tax return during a regularly scheduled meeting of the Board of Trustees prior to the filing of the return.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	On an annual basis, each Board member, officer and key employee is provided with a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy and a disclosure form to identify any known or potential conflict. The disclosure forms are returned to the Vice President for Finance and Business to summarize any conflicts which are identified. The summarization includes a description of the conflict and proposed resolution and is presented to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees for discussion. The Audit Committee then recommends to the Board the appropriate action to be taken for each identified conflict. Any member found to have a conflict or potential conflict is recused from the deliberations concerning the conflict and also decisions concerning any transaction associated with the conflict. If a conflict arises mid year, a new disclosure form is required to be submitted by the affected individual and another review by the Audit Committee and Board is undertaken. In order to waive a conflict, the policy requires 75% of the voting members to vote in favor of waiving the conflict.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Compensation Committee of the Board of Trustees is charged with the annual review of the top management official's (President and Dean) compensation. The President and Dean provides the Compensation Committee with an annual self assessment for their review. In addition, the Committee utilizes comparable compensation data of other presidents and deans in order to make a compensation recommendation to the entire Board of Trustees. The deliberations by the Compensation Committee and Board of Trustees are held solely by the members with no management or staff involved in those deliberations. The President and Dean is responsible for determining the compensation of his direct reports (officers and key employees). The compensation review includes examining comparable compensation data for similar positions.
