Alumni are also periodically encouraged to contact their state and federal representatives. The president, chief financial officer and government relations officer sign official communications including lobbying appeals. The university's governmental relations office has a full time director and a part time secretary. The office is principally responsible for monitoring government action at the local, state, and federal level, reporting significant actions which impact the university to appropriate offices and where appropriate lobbying legislative and executive bodies. The vast majority of lobbying communications and direct contacts with legislators or legislative staff members emanates from this office. The university conveyed their position on various state and federal issues, miscellaneous economic development issues, energy, and environmental issues.
