F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The Compensation Sub-Committee, a sub-committee of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees, meets annually to review the President's performance as compared to the goals set forth for him from the previous fiscal year. As needed, the Sub-Committee engages an independent consultant to provide competitive market data from comparable institutions and to recommend changes to the President's base salary level and/or benefits offerings. The Compensation Sub-Committee's recommendations are submitted to the Executive Committee for review and endorsement. Once approved by the Executive Committee, the recommendations are considered and voted on by the full Board of Trustees in executive session. Compensation levels for the Vice Presidents of the College are determined annually by the President, with review and endorsement from the Executive Committee of the Board. Inputs include performance to annual goals, an overall assessment of significant contributions to and leadership of the College, as well as competitiveness of pay relative to comparable institutions. On a periodic basis (e.g., once every three to five years), an independent consultant is engaged to review salary levels for each Vice President, to provide competitive market information, and to recommend adjustments for consideration by the President and the Executive Committee.
