PART VII-A, LINE 3

B. Qualifications.

(1) Residency. Directors need not be residents of the State of Illinois or of the United States of America.

(2) Affiliation. At least three (3) directors shall be either employees, directors or trustees ("Affiliates") of then-existing members of the Corporation on the date of their election to the Board of Directors and during their tenure on the Board of Directors; provided, that a director shall not cease to be qualified to serve as a director of the Corporation merely because he is no longer an Affiliate of a member; provided, further, that if at any time there are fewer than three (3) Affiliate directors on the Board of Directors, the requirement that there be three (3) Affiliate directors shall automatically be deemed waived for a period of the lesser of one (1) year or until there are again three (3) Affiliate directors on the Board of Directors and, by resolution of the Board of Directors, may be waived for such further time as the Board of Directors deems necessary or appropriate in order to fill those vacancies on the Board of Directors.

(3) Attendance Requirement. Over each three (3)-year term of office (and prorated and rounded up to the nearest higher whole number for any term consisting of less than three (3) calendar years), directors must attend at least two-thirds (2/3) of all regular and special Board of Directors meetings held during such term, including at least three (3) regular meetings in person (preferably the annual meetings of the Board of Directors, but not limited thereto) rather than by conference telephone or other conference communications equipment pursuant to Section 10 of Article VI hereof. A director's failure to satisfy this attendance requirement shall disqualify such director from serving any subsequent term. Action taken by unanimous written consent of the directors without a meeting shall not be deemed attendance at a meeting for purposes of this attendance requirement.

(4) Additional Criteria. The Nominating and Board Development Committee shall define such additional qualifications and criteria for Board of Directors service and recommend the adoption of such criteria to the Board of Directors.

Section 3 Term and Election.

A. Term. The initial term of the Group 1 directors shall expire December 31, 2008. The initial term of the Group 2 directors shall expire December 31, 2009. Each director shall otherwise hold office until his or her successor shall have been elected and qualified. A director may serve more than one (1) term of office as a director, but no more than three (3) consecutive terms of office, except that a director may be reelected following a break in service consisting of at least one (1) year. For purposes of the foregoing term limits, neither service for a partial term consisting of less than three (3) calendar years nor service preceding such a break in service be taken into account.

B. Election. Prior to the annual meeting of the Board of Directors, the Nominating and Board Development Committee shall meet to nominate at least that number of candidates for directors equal to (i) the number of directors in that Group whose term of office expires the December 31 of that year plus (ii) any increase in the number of directors of that Group desired by the Board of Directors, subject to the then applicable limitation on the total number of directors and the maintenance of equality or near equality in number of directors among the three Groups pursuant to Paragraph A of Section 2 of this Article III. Additional nominations may be proposed by any director at or before the annual meeting. All nominees shall be subject to election independently of each other and not as a slate. Each director shall have one vote for each position on the board to be filled, and voting shall not be cumulative. The nominees receiving the largest number of votes shall be elected.

Section 4 Compensation. Directors shall not receive any compensation for their services as directors, but the Board of Directors may by resolution authorize reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred by directors in the performance of their duties. Such authorization may prescribe procedures for approval and payment of such expenses by designated officers of the Corporation.

Section 5 Resignation or Removal. Any director may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors. Such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or, if no time is specified, at the time such notice is delivered to the Chairperson or Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors. Any director may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors in office present and voting at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors at which a quorum is present.

Section 6 Vacancies. Vacancies occurring in the Board of Directors, or any directorship to be filled by reason of an increase in the number of directors, shall be filled by the Board of Directors at any regular or special meeting of the Board of Directors. The Vice Chairperson shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors in the absence of the Chairperson, shall perform such duties delegated by the Chairperson from time to time, and shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be assigned by the Board of Directors.

Section 9 Election and Term of Office. The initial term of the Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors shall expire December 31, 2008. At the annual meeting of the Board of Directors in 2008, and at such meeting every two (2) years thereafter, the Board of Directors shall elect a Chairperson and Vice Chairperson of the Board of Directors to serve for a two (2)-year term commencing the following January 1.

Section 10. Removal or Resignation of Board Officers. Any officer of the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. Upon such removal, or upon the resignation of any such officer, the Board of Directors shall fill the vacancy by electing a successor to hold such Board of Directors office for the balance of the removed or resigned officer's term. The term of office of any Board of Directors officer who is also an employee of the Corporation shall terminate automatically at such time as such person's employment by the Corporation terminates.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS OF THE CORPORATION.

Section 1 Officers. The officers of the Corporation shall consist of a President (who shall also be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation), one or more Vice Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer (who shall also be the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation), and such other officers and assistant officers as may be deemed necessary or desirable by the Board of Directors. If the election of officers shall not be held at any such meeting, such election shall be held as soon thereafter as may be convenient. Vacancies may be filled or new offices created and filled at any meeting of the Board of Directors. Each officer shall hold office until his or her successor shall have been duly elected and qualified, unless the office is vacated prior to that time. Election of an officer shall not of itself create contract rights.

Section 3 Removal. Any officer elected or appointed by the Board of Directors may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed. The term of office of any officer elected by the Board of Directors who is also an employee of the Corporation shall automatically terminate at such time as such person's employment by the Corporation terminates.

Section 4 Vacancies. A vacancy in any office because of death, resignation, removal, disqualification or otherwise, may be filled by the Board of Directors for the unexpired period of the term.

Section 6 Informal Action by Directors. Any action required by law to be taken at a meeting of the directors or any action which may be taken at a meeting of directors may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing, setting forth the action to be taken, shall be signed by all members of the Board of Directors.

members made by such policy based on financial hardship, type of member or volume of foodbanking activity.

B. Transaction. The term "transaction" shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

Any other director with knowledge of the relevant facts may also bring to the attention of the Board of Directors the fact that a director is a Conflicted Director and, if the existence of the conflict is contested by the alleged Conflicted Director, the matter of whether or not such Director is a Conflicted Director shall be put to a vote of the Board of Directors (including the alleged Conflicted Director). A Conflicted Director shall not participate in any discussion of the transaction except to make such disclosure and to answer questions. A Conflicted Director shall be counted in determining whether a quorum of directors is present, but shall retire from the room in which the Board of Directors is meeting and shall not participate in the final deliberation or vote and shall not be counted when the Board of Directors votes on the transaction.

D. Annual Statement. A copy of this conflict of interest provision shall be furnished to each director at least annually; this policy shall be reviewed annually for the information and guidance of directors; and any new directors shall be advised of the policy upon their election. The Bylaws may contain any provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the Corporation not inconsistent with law or the articles of incorporation.

ARTICLE X - THIRD PARTIES.

Nothing herein expressed or implied shall be construed to confer upon or give to any person, corporation, trust, joint venture, association, company, partnership or government, or any agency or political subdivision thereof, other than the directors of the Corporation or, to the extent provided in these Bylaws, the members, any rights or remedies under or in connection with these Bylaws.

member, employee or agent of the Corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, if the person seeking indemnification acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of no contest or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person seeking indemnification did not act in good faith and in a manner in which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Corporation, or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, a presumption that the person seeking indemnification had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 2 Manner of Determining Eligibility. Any indemnification shall be made by the Corporation upon a determination that indemnification of such person is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 of this Article. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such a quorum is not obtainable or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion.

Section 3 Advance Payment of Expenses. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding, as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person seeking indemnification to repay such amount, unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in this Article.

Section 4 Contract Rights. Mission Statement:

The mission of The Global FoodBanking Network (GFN) is to alleviate world hunger by developing national networks of food banks and strengthening food banking around the world.

Values Statement:

- Results – We are committed to getting things done.
- Passionate Professionalism – We believe that the application of great desire with great skill can achieve great results.
- Diversity – We serve the hungry of the world; they are of all nations and all types. Our resources and solutions will be similarly diverse.
- Standards – Our effectiveness and credibility depend upon clear and demanding standards for membership and performance.
- Urgency – We seek to make a difference for as many as possible, as quickly as possible. Each day that passes with hunger in the world is a lost opportunity to do better.
- Respect – We believe that the culture, customs and structures that groups build to reflect and sustain their lives constitute a framework for our involvement, not an obstacle to our progress.

Categories of Membership and Non-Member Engagement

The Global FoodBanking Network (GFN) has three classifications or types of members, and two additional ways in which we interact with other people who are dedicated to fighting hunger:

1. Members:
 - a. National Network Members (national networks of food banks)
 - b. Independent Certified Food Bank Members
 - c. Federation / Association Members
2. Opportunities for Engagement with Non-Member communities:
 - a. Candidates for Membership
 - b. Non-Member Projects¹

¹Non-Member Projects include work in communities that lack food banks. Typically this work will lead to the development of food banks.

Membership Criteria

The central role of GFN is the promotion of food banking as a viable catalyst for mobilizing the necessary partnerships between the public, private, and voluntary sectors of any society to alleviate the problem of hunger faced by that society. As noted in our values, our effectiveness and credibility depend upon clear and demanding standards for membership and performance. Accordingly, GFN must be capable of assuring its stakeholders that food banks are a safe, accountable, transparent system for receiving, storing, and distributing grocery products donated and/or purchased by the public and private sectors for the benefit of hungry people. The only way to ensure that such an assertion by GFN is true and verifiable is that the food banks and networks that are members of GFN must agree to adhere to a set of operating standards, and must enforce those standards within their own structure and, equally important, must allow GFN to enforce the standards among its Members.

Independent Certified Food Banks AND National Network Members

Therefore, all classifications of members of GFN agree to the following criteria for membership:

- Effective organizational governance structure that includes a broad representation of concerned citizens, businesses, and social service organizations who labor to end hunger
- Fiscal and operational transparency
- Food safety practices compliant with statutory and regulatory requirements
- Effective inventory management with distribution tracking capability that can support a recall of donated product if necessary
- Active and effective food sourcing
- Documented chain of compliance monitoring
- Nondiscrimination policies that apply to its operations and the operations of those organizations served
- Acceptance of and participation in the GFN governance model
- Willingness to assist GFN in its efforts to secure support for its Members
- Agreement to limit business activities to agreed service territory and service model that limit the impact on other organizations who labor to achieve a similar mission
- Willingness to share food surpluses with other GFN Members unless restricted by donor or legal issues
- Timely submission of annual program and service volume reports
- Compliance with terms, accountability, and any restrictions of food donations, in-kind donations, and financial grants
- Public, non-partisan, leadership on the issue of hunger

It is expected that in most cases in a country where there are one or more Independent Certified Food Bank Members that the collective goal will be to nurture the development of additional food banks and, where practical, unify those food banks in a National Network. Independent Certified Food Bank Members therefore agree to provide technical assistance and guidance in the development of additional food banks in their country. When a national network is eventually formed and ready to seek membership in GFN, the Independent Certified Food Bank(s) in that country agree to terminate their independent membership in deference to the National Network's Membership.

National Network Members

We also define a number of additional key characteristics that National Network Members must demonstrate in order to secure membership in GFN:

- National scope of service delivery
- Measurable and material impact
- The most recognized national force for hunger reduction
- Membership of service organizations that represent the majority of emergency food distribution

By definition, the individual food bank members of a National Network Member are considered de-facto members of GFN, and are therefore held to the same operating standards defined above. The National Network Member is expected to conduct regular compliance audits of its member food banks and to ensure that the member food banks are conducting compliance management procedures relative to their member agencies.

Both National Network Members and Independent Certified Food Bank Members agree that they will maintain a regular process for verifying adherence to the standards throughout their structure, and they agree to allow GFN to conduct regular compliance audits of their operations to verify a fully integrated vertical compliance management system.

Federation / Association Members:

These organizations may represent multiple National Networks of Food Banks, Regional Groups of Food Banks, or other structures of federation or association that do not conflict with or restrict a national food bank network's or community food bank's GFN membership options. A Federation or Association Member will not be required to manage GFN compliance through their structure. However, they are expected to adopt and support in principle the values and standards of GFN and support their members that are interested in seeking National Network or Independent Certified Food Bank Member status in GFN.

GFN Support to Federation and Association Members

As it is not feasible or intended for GFN to certify compliance with GFN governance and operating standards, GFN will not proactively pursue access to additional sources of volunteers, funding, or grocery products for Federation and Association Members. However, GFN will aggressively work to engage its partners with Federation and Association Members when it is learned that a GFN partner has an interest in the work of a Member Federation or Association.

GFN Responsibilities to Members

For National Network and Independent Certified Food Bank Members, GFN may represent to volunteer groups, financial donors, and grocery products donors that each such organization (GFN Members) observes GFN governance and operating standards. This is achieved because Members accept GFN standards and that GFN exercises its responsibility to inspect, certify, and enforce compliance with those standards. Federation and Association Members are not required to adopt GFN standards and are not subject to GFN inspection, certification, or enforcement of standards.

The Mission of GFN is to broadly assist in the development of food banking throughout the world. It is our belief that the effectiveness of food banks is ultimately achieved when food banks work together with their agencies and other food banks that collectively agree to observe standards. Organizations that achieve the governance and operating standards of GFN are eligible for GFN membership.

For each National Food Bank Network or Independent Certified Food Bank Member GFN will proactively assist in the development of that Food Bank or Network. GFN assistance will include sharing of its standards, programs, best practices, and partnerships as they can be of assistance to each Member. GFN will also work with each Member to achieve an understanding of that Member's needs and when possible, will work with that Member to gain access to support and resources needed by the Member. GFN will represent each such Member with organizations that are known to GFN and that may provide access to additional sources of volunteers, financial support, services in-kind, and donated grocery products for the respective GFN Member.
