Exempt Purpose, Line 1, Organization's Mission

Club for Growth is a nationwide nonprofit membership organization dedicated to promoting public policies that promote economic growth primarily through legislative involvement, issue advocacy, research, and training and educational activity and may engage in any other lawful purpose.

Statement of Program Service Accomplishments, Line 4, Program Services

a. Public education and research $775,453

The organization conducts a program of public education through speeches, articles and TV and radio news interviews to educate citizens on the benefits of pro-growth policies and the work of the organization. Staff members wrote articles on topics including economic policy, tax policy and excessive spending that appeared in leading newspapers and news outlets, including USA Today and The Wall Street Journal. Staff members appeared on many nationally distributed TV and radio news programs and dozens of local radio programs and were quoted in numerous newspapers and online news sites.

b. Publications $274,123

The organization publishes information in print and on the Internet to educate on economic issues and motivate people to act in support of pro-economic growth policies. Its blog published over 800 entries, has been inducted into the Weblog Awards Hall of Fame and was visited by over 150,000 unique visitors during the fiscal year. It publishes a website on healthcare reform and publishes a membership newsletter that has a circulation of about 25,000. The organization also publishes information on Facebook and Twitter and has published over 350 items using the service during the year. It also maintains two list serves—on free trade and farm bill issues—and subscribers are primarily well known public policy advocates. The organization published a series of ten Presidential Candidate White Papers on the economic records and policies of candidates who competed for the Republican presidential nomination.

c. Legislative Involvement and Policy Advocacy $1,341,939

The organization monitors legislation that can help or harm economic growth, and urges its adoption or rejection by Congress, the President, and state and local governments. In addition to its public education efforts, such actions for legislative involvement and policy advocacy included 25 letters to Congress and 29 press releases. To further its efforts to enact pro-economic growth legislation, the organization also periodically publishes reports on congressional roll call votes on legislation that would impact economic growth for distribution to the media, its members and the public.

d. Lectures and Conferences $458,541

The organization conducted a conference during the fiscal year on economic policies that can increase economic growth. Conference presentations were made by eighteen members of Congress, four current or former governors, an attorney general, the former US Comptroller General, two economists and five journalists.
