Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11		Form 990 is reviewed internally by the Organization's Financial Analyst, Senior Vice President of Finance and CEO. The return is compared to the current year audited financial statements, internal data and prior year tax return to insure that the information to be filed is complete and accurate. After the internal review is complete the return is forwarded to legal counsel for their review. Once the internal and legal review is complete the tax return is provided to all board members with the final review and approval resting with the Board Officers. Once the tax return is approved the Treasurer will sign and have the return filed electronically by the Organization's tax preparer.

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Yankee Alliance, Inc monitors and enforces compliance with the Organization's conflict of interest policy by providing board members with a conflict of interest statement for their review and signature. If a conflict does exist the board member is required to disclose that conflict in the disclosure section of the document. Conflict of interest statements are presented to the board members at the Organization's annual meeting in October. The Organization monitors and enforces the conflict of interest policy by including a standing agenda item asking board members to self-disclose any conflicts of interest that may have arisen since the last disclosure document was signed.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The compensation of all employees, with the exception of the CEO, is based on comparisons to an annual market survey which is performed by an outside firm, and in which the organization gears such salaries toward the 50th percentile of the survey. These salaries are managed through the Human Resources Department. The CEO's salary is reviewed annually and also compared to a market survey performed by an outside firm, and is geared toward the 50th percentile. The CEO's salary is determined by the compensation committee of the board of directors.
