Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Compensation Information	Form 990, Schedule J, Part I	Line 1 - The University pays for the President's country club fees. This fringe benefit is taxable to the President and properly substantiated. Line 4b - The President's employment agreement includes certain deferred compensation to be payable upon his retirement. During calendar year 2009, revisions to Section 409A of the IRS Code resulted in certain of that compensation becoming taxable to the President in 2009, even though it was not received by him. The Board of Trustees' compensation committee decided that it would be preferable to make the deferred payment during 2009 since the tax was due, to match the payment with the tax due.
