Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S.

All requests for scholarship or program grant support are documented in writing and are reviewed for mission compatibility and fiscal validity. All students must formally apply for scholarship support through a process collaboratively coordinated through NVC's Office of Financial Aid and the NVC Foundation and reviewed thoroughly by scholarship committees with guidance and oversight from NVC Foundation staff. Materials and equipment for instruction, curriculum, and library use funded by the Foundation are verified through initial and on-going site inspection and regular communication with their end-users. Campus-wide support provided by the Foundation is monitored through regular and consistent institution-wide committees on which Foundation staff serve (College President's Cabinet and Administrative Services
