| PART X | FIN 48 | The Foundation is a not-for-profit entity exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and a public charity under Section 509(a)(1). Accordingly, no provision for income taxes is made in these financial statements. The Foundation applies a more-likely-than-not measurement methodology to reflect the financial statement impact of uncertain tax positions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. After evaluating the tax positions taken, none are considered to be uncertain, therefore, no amounts have been recognized as of June 30, 2011 and 2010. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with tax positions are recorded in the period assessed in management and general expenses. No interest or penalties have been assessed as of June 30, 2011 and 2010. Tax years that remain subject to examination include 2008 through 2011 for the federal return and 2007 through 2011 for the Colorado return. |

| PART VI-B, LINE 15 | COMPENSATION POLICY | The Foundation's process for determining compensation of all of its employees begins with identifying responsibilities of the position. Salaries associated with comparable positions within the nonprofit sector and geographic area are considered, as well as the employee's relevant experience and education. Salary and wage rates for new employees and any changes to pay rates are approved by the President/CEO or his/her designee. The chairperson of the Foundation's board of directors determines compensation for the President/CEO using the forementioned process and proposes the compensation or changes to compensation to the voting directors for approval. The President/CEO determines the compensation for other top officials. The Board of Directors then approves the compensation on an individual position basis for other top officials in conjunction with its review and approval of the Foundation's budget. Board-approved compensation and changes in compensation are communicated by the chairperson to the President/CEO and CFO. Appropriate documentation of the compensation process is maintained in the Foundation's records. |
