The Bishop's University Foundation exists for the sole purpose of providing financial assistance to Bishop's University, in the form of funding for scholarships, bursaries, research, student support, faculty support, programs and projects, athletics, library acquisitions, etc.

Both entities are located in Sherbrooke, Quebec, Canada.

The Foundation and the University are externally audited by the same firm, which ensures that the amounts declared as disbursed to the University by the Foundation match the amounts reported as received per the University's records.

Most amounts are transferred to the University via an intercompany general ledger account.

Part VI, line 9: See attached document for addresses of directors that cannot be reached at the organization's mailing address.

Part VI, line 19: Copies of the Foundation's financial statements as well as all other governing documents are available to interested parties upon request.

Part VI, line 11: Copies of the form, before and after completion, are available to all members of the governing body at their request, but are not systematically distributed.

Part XI, line 5: Financial Statements are prepared in $CAD. Therefore, there is a difference created by the conversion of the fund balances from $CAD to $USD from one year to the next because the exchange rate fluctuates from one year to the next. The adjustment is to reconcile the opening fund balances converted to $USD.
