SchD_P10_S00_L02	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	The foundation is an organization exempt from income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is generally not subject to federal income taxes. Contributions to the foundation are deductible for tax purposes by the donor, subject to the normal limitations imposed by the taxing authorities. However, the foundation is subject to income taxes on any net income that is derived from a trade or business, regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded from any unrelated trade or business. In the opinion of management, any unrelated business income tax would be immaterial to the basic financial statements taken as a whole. The foundation recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Recognized income tax positions are measured at the largest amount that is greater than 50% likely of being realized. Changes in recognition or measurement are reflected in the period in which the change in judgment occurs.

F990_P06_S0B_L12c	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c	The University of Alaska Foundation has a Conflict of Interest Policy which applies to board members, all committees, subcommittees, officers, employees and volunteers having board-delegated powers. This policy is distributed annually and each recipient reviews the policy, signs it and returns it to the Board Coordinator indicating either no conflicts or disclosing any existing or foreseeable conflicts. Any disclosures are then forwarded to the Executive Committee for review and action. The policy provides that potential conflicts are to be disclosed to the board, committee, officer or supervisor as soon as practicable after becoming aware of a potential conflict. If a conflict is disclosed in a meeting, the person of interest is asked to leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement that results in the conflict. If appropriate, another person or committee may be appointed to investigate alternatives to the proposed transaction or arrangement. The nature of the potential conflict, the determination by the board or committee, and the details of any votes taken are documented in the minutes of the meeting. Any person violating the Conflict of Interest Policy shall be subject to appropriate discipline, including dismissal or removal from office.

F990_P06_S0B_L15	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15	The President of the University of Alaska Foundation also carries the title of Chief Development Officer for the University of Alaska, and as such, compensation is determined in conjunction with University. In determining compensation for this individual, the Vice President of University Relations at the University of Alaska collects market survey data and recommends a salary range. The compensation for this position is based on data from the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR). Additional resources include data from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education, and The Association of Governing Boards for Colleges and Universities. The Vice President of University Relations reviews the compensation package on an annual basis to determine any adjustments that should be made, and the entire package is reviewed by the President of the University. The Board of Trustees for the Foundation demonstrated approval when passing the operating budget for the year on June 2, 2010, which is substantiated in the minutes of the meeting. The Chief Investment Officer for the Foundation is also an employee of the University of Alaska, with compensation for this individual falling under the university compensation policies. Salary for this position is based on duties and responsibilities for the position that relate to the University of Alaska as well as those for the Foundation. Compensation for this position is based on data from the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR), and is reviewed on an annual basis. Compensation for the CIO was approved when the operating budget was approved at the regularly scheduled meeting on June 2, 2010. The Treasurer for the Foundation is also an employee of the University of Alaska and holds the title Associate Vice President for Finance. He receives no compensation from the Foundation, and his salary structure falls under university policies, with an annual review. Compensation for this officer is not approved by the Board of Trustees since this individual is not compensated by the University of Alaska Foundation.

Part VII

Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide additional information for responses to questions on Schedule R (see instructions)

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
SchR_P02_S00_L00	Schedule R, Part II	The University of Alaska does not meet the definition of a 'related organization' for required reporting on Form 990, Schedule R. Although the University is supported by the University of Alaska Foundation, the Foundation is a public charity under Section 170(b)(1)(A)(iv) rather than under Section 509(a)(3). The University of Alaska Foundation is voluntarily reporting data upon Form 990 Part VII and Schedule R as though there were a 509(a)(3) supporting/supported relationship in place with the University because management believes that donors and other readers of the Form 990 have an expectation that this information will be included on this Form 990.
