Part I, Line 3		The Organization relied on a related organization, Catholic Healthcare West, that used one or more of the methods described in Schedule J, Part I, Line 3, to establish the Organization's top management official's compensation. See Schedule O disclosure for Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15 for additional information.
PART I, LINE 4a		CHW's key employees and certain officers and highly compensated employees participate in a severance plan that provides market-standard compensation, ranging from payments of 6 months to 2 years of base compensation, depending on the executive's position, in the event of a position elimination or other involuntary termination, in accordance with the guidelines of the plan. Payments pursuant to this plan occurring during 2010 to an officer who resigned during the tax year: P. Brydon, $173,056.
PART II, SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURES		Although the organization does not directly employ any personnel, the supported organization's executive compensation philosophy is designed to assist the organization in attracting and retaining the caliber of executives required to enable the organization to fulfill its mission of providing high quality healthcare for all persons regardless of their ability to pay for services, improving the quality of life in the communities the organization serves, promoting patient and employee satisfaction, and ensuring financial stability. A substantial portion of executive compensation is performance based and is linked to organizational goals approved in advance by the Human Resources and Compensation Committee. These goals include attainment of annual and long-term financial performance, certain healthcare quality standards and the organization's commitment to serving the poor and disenfranchised in the communities it serves.
PART VII - SCHEDULE J-2		The supported organization does not compensate directors, DR. KEVIN ARIANI, DR. MAURICE ZEITLIN, GRACE LELAND BEHARRY and MARY GRIM for their services as board members. All compensation and benefits reported for directors represent compensation as either an employee of the supported organization or for physician services for the supported organization.
