Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The mission of Johnson C Smith University is to provide an outstanding education for a diverse group of talented and highly motivated students from various ethnic, socioeconomic, and geographical backgrounds. The university offers a liberal arts education in conjunction with concentrated study in specialized fields, in preparation for advanced study and specific careers. The university endeavors to produce graduates who are able to communicate effectively, think critically, learn independently as well as collaboratively, and demonstrate competence in their chosen fields. Further, it provides an environment in which students can fulfill their physical, social, cultural, spiritual, and other personal needs through which they can develop a compelling sense of social and civic responsibility for leadership and service in a dynamic, multicultural society. Likewise, the university embraces its responsibility to provide leadership, service, and lifelong learning to the larger community. Rega

Description of Organization's Collections	Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	The University has acquired several pieces of art over the years through donations from various alumni and other donors. Many of these items are hung in the James B. Duke library for students attending the school to enjoy as part of their educational experience.
Intended Uses of Endowment Funds	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	The intended uses of the University's endowment funds are to fund scholarships, professorships, professional development and maintenance.
Liability for Uncertain Tax Position (ASC 740)	Schedule D, Part X, Line 2	On July 1, 2007, the University adopted the provisions of ASC 740, Income Taxes. ASC 740 addresses the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an entity's financial statements and prescribes a threshold of more-likely-than-not for recognition and derecognition of tax provisions taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. ASC 740 also provides guidance on measurement, classification, interest and penalties, and disclosure. The adoption of ASC 740 had no material impact on the University's financial statements.
