This amended return is being filed to correct some inadvertent errors (relatively minor - don't change the total assets of the Foundation) that occurred in the original initial Form 990 return filed in 2011. Form 990 itself is amended as follows: Part III, there were/are no responses to any question in this part that appear in Schedule O; line 29, a one-time contribution of non-cash assets was received from MLR (it was recognized in Schedule B of the initial return but not on this line, Part VIII, line g, or Schedule M -- all three references are being amended in this amendment); and Part VIII, line 7a and 7b - corrected to include the gross amount of sales/cost related to the reported gain. Schedule D is the primary focus of this amended return, Part V, Endowment Funds. This amended return reflects the actual balance for two endowment funds held by the Foundation (the initial return inadvertently reported on only one of the funds). This amendment further describes the intended uses of the endowment funds as requested. Schedules I and L were amended only with some corrections to typographical errors in the "supplemental information" portions of each. And, of course, this Schedule O is amended to include reference to the need for this amended return.

Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

The Form 990 is first drafted by MLR staff through the Intercorporate Services Agreement. The tax form is reviewed by the independent auditors during the annual audit process. The completed form is distributed and reviewed by the full Board of Directors prior to it being submitted.

PART VI, Section B, line 12C:

The Foundation's conflict of interest policy covers all board members or members of their family who might have a personal or business interest in, or is involved in any way with, an organization with whom the Board is considering a grant request or business contract. Any such interest or involvement must be disclosed to the full Board of Directors. Potential conflicts of interest are disclosed with the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest to the full board/staff prior to any discussion. The conflicted director may not vote on or be present for the discussion of an issue. Conflicts are documented in the meeting minutes of the Foundation and discussed with legal counsel if necessary. A board transaction with a conflicted party is authorized, approved, or ratified if it receives the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors who have no direct or indirect interest in the transaction. Each director signs a statement which affirms he/she has received, read, understands, and agrees to comply in all respects with the MLR Foundation's conflict of interest policy.
