Part III Supplemental Information

Complete this part to provide the information, explanation, or descriptions required for Part I, lines 1a, 1b, 4c, 5a, 5b, 6a, 6b, 7, and 8. Also complete this part for any additional information.

Part I, Line 4b: Executives participate in a program that provides for supplemental retirement benefits. The payment of benefits under the program, if any, is entirely dependent upon the facts and circumstances under which the executive terminates employment with the organization. Benefits under the program are unfunded and non-vested. Due to the substantial risk of forfeiture provision, there is no guarantee that these executives will ever receive any benefit under the program. Any amount ultimately paid under the program to the executive is reported as compensation on Form 990, Schedule J, Part II, Column B in the year paid.

Persons Receiving Payments:

Robert Henkel - $77,939

This amount was paid by Ascension Health, a related organization, for services previously provided to Ascension Health. No amounts reported on Line 4b were paid by CHIMCO.

policy in that any director or principal officer who has a direct or indirect financial interest, must disclose the existence of the financial interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts to the directors considering the proposed transaction or arrangement. The remaining individuals on the governing board will decide if conflicts of interest exist. Each director and principal officer annually signs a statement which affirms such person has received a copy of the conflicts of interest policy, has read and understands the policy, has agreed to comply with the policy, and understands that the organization is charitable and in order to maintain its federal tax exemption it must engage primarily in activities which accomplish its tax-exempt purpose. In addition, the General Counsel of Ascension Health reviews all Conflict of Interest disclosures and makes an annual report to the Board on such disclosures.

contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. The Ascension Health Compensation Committee of the Board engaged an independent compensation consultant to advise the Committee with respect to the compensation of the top management official. Then the Ascension Health Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the compensation. In the review of the compensation, the top management official was compared to individuals in other comparable organizations who hold the same title.

During the review and approval of the compensation, documentation of the decision was recorded in the minutes. The individual was not present when his compensation was decided.

In determining compensation of other officers of the organization, the process performed by Ascension Health, a related entity that paid the other officers, included a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data, and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. The Compensation Committee of the Board engaged an independent compensation consultant to advise the Committee with respect to the executive team members. Then the Compensation Committee reviewed and approved the compensation. In the review of the compensation, the other officers of the organization were compared to individuals in other comparable organizations who hold the same title. During the review and approval of the compensation, documentation of the decision was recorded in the minutes.

Catholic Healthcare Investment Management Company, through Ascension

Health, performed all of the above procedures to obtain the rebuttable presumption respecting compensation arrangements (per IRC Section 4958).
