Inspection

Name of the organization

American College of Surgeons Professional Association

Employer identification number

300079883

Part VI Line 11 - When the 990 forms are completed by the ACS Accounting department and reviewed by outside tax professionals, copies of the 990 forms are sent to the ACS Finance Committee for review (ACS Board of Regents delegated this responsibility to the ACS Finance Committee) The ACS Finance Committee is given ample time to review the documents and address any concerns to the Chief Financial Officer. Once the ACS Finance Committee's concerns are addressed, the ACS Accounting department will revise the 990 forms (if necessary), email a copy to the full Board of Regents, and file them with the IRS.

Part VI Line 12C - The College has conflicts of interest policies for employees, consultants and board members. All employees, consultants and board members are required to sign a disclosure statement each year. The Chief Financial Officer's office disseminates and collects these forms. There is also an ACS Conflicts of Interest Committee that meets periodically as the need arises, to discuss issues that relate to conflicts of interest. The committee accounts for the receipt of disclosure statements and follow up on any issues. This information is then reported to the ACS Finance Committee of the Board of Regents. If the ACS Finance Committee feels there are conflicts that are questionable in nature, they are reported to the ACS Board of Regents Chair and Treasurer for action

Part VI Line 15B - The College has policies and procedures concerning compensation increases, performance evaluations, and job evaluations. In addition, merit increases are included as a budget parameter for review by the ACS Finance Committee as is the addition of any new employee or human resource benefit proposal. The College has an ACS Executive Compensation Committee as a subcommittee to the ACS Finance Committee. The committee is comprised of the Board of Regents Chair, Board of Regents Treasurer, Board of Governors Secretary, and a member of the ACS Finance Committee. The ACS Executive Compensation Committee's purpose is as follows: To establish procedures to create a "rebuttable presumption of reasonableness" in connection with IRS intermediate sanctions regulations. Responsibilities are to ensure that compensation for each "disqualified person" is reasonable. ACS Human Resources provides comparability data to the committee in the form of surveys, other similar organizations, geographical comparisons, and actual written offers from similar institutions for the services of a disqualified person. The committee documents the basis for all compensation determinations.
