iCan House serves youth and adults with social impairments such as found in Asperger's Syndrome, Autism Spectrum Disorder, ADHD and other developmental disabilities. Simple social "rules" elude these young people and create challenges that affect their educational achievement, job prospects, relationships, and ability to live independently. By teaching and helping youth and adults develop practical skills for the real world, iCan House helps them become successful, contributing members of our community.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 28, Program Service Accomplishments:

iClub (ages 8-14): a weekly social interaction club designed for children and adolescents with social difficulties. Participants engage in fun learning activities while interacting with others and learning social skills. This environment enables iClub participants to make new friends in a safe, structured environment where they can be themselves, thereby gaining the confidence necessary for success in the real world and increasing their self-esteem.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 29, Program Service Accomplishments:

Meet-n-Eat - An adult social club (ages 18+) for those with social skills deficits, who are looking to improve their social skills and meet new people. Members partake in multiple social activities each month, including a "night out on the town," movie night, dinner and social discussion at iCan House, activity planning sessions and more.

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line 30, Program Service Accomplishments:

Real World Connections (ages 14-21): a weekly, single-sex social skills club focused on aiding adolescents to form bonds with their peers and unravel the mysteries of puberty and maturity as they prepare for adulthood. Groups also interact with typically developing peers in their sessions, which allows program participants to gain valuable perspectives from their peers. An additional benefit has been that this interface allows typically developing teens to gain a better understanding and tolerance of these differences.

Form 990-EZ, Part III Line 31, Other Program Service Accomplishments:

One-to-One Coaching - Individualized coaching tailored specifically for children and adults with social and developmental needs, aimed at helping them gain direct instruction in the areas in which they need the most attention. In addition, iCan House offers individual coaching for the parents to help them sort through the complex issues that they face.

Grants $ 0. Expenses $ 11,214.

Camp iCan - Annual summer day camp offerings created for the specific needs of those with social and developmental disabilities, with unique learning styles and interests in mind. While at iCan House, campers are provided with an engaging and enjoyable social experience in the summer. Campers have the opportunity to make new friends and enjoy
