Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
Part X	Part X FIN48 Footnote	Effective January 1, 2009, generally accepted accounting principles require the organization to evaluate the level of uncertainty related to whether tax positions taken will be sustained upon examination. Any positions taken that do not meet the more-likely-than-not threshold must be quantified and recorded as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying balance sheet along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. Interest and penalties associated with unrecognized tax benefits would be classified as additional income taxes in the statement of income. The organization believes that none of the tax positions taken would materially impact the financial statements and no such liabilities have been recorded.
Part V, Line 4	Part V, Line 4 Intended uses of the endowment fund	The income from these endowment funds will be used for the needs of the Agency at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

A certified art therapist provides the children's counseling. All staff members are trained in trauma-informed care. During the fiscal year, 589 clients received counseling services. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5 Legal Advocacy Support Services provides justice systems advocacy and support for victims of domestic violence. Clients are assisted through the court process and given safety planning and information about victims' compensation and the Ohio victim notification network. During the fiscal year, 1,307 clients were served in this program. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 6 Transitional Housing, a new program that was started in October this fiscal year, is funded primarily with a grant from the Office of Violence Against Women in the Department of Justice. Four to five adult clients can be supported in housing of their choice for a period of six months to two years, allowing victims of domestic violence or sexual abuse the opportunity to heal and move towards self-sufficiency. Support includes rent and utility payments along with case management during the transitional housing period. 10 women and children were supported this fiscal year.
