Part IV, line 2b: The Foundation is acting as fiscal agent for two entities. Under the fiscal agent agreements, the Foundation is obligated to maintain the funds received on behalf of these entities in segregated restricted funds. The Foundation is further obligated to invest the funds as directed by the entities and to disburse funds only as approved by the entities under procedures established in the fiscal agent agreements.

Part V, line 4: The distributions from the true endowments are used as the donors have stipulated. This includes, but is not limited to, scholarships, fellowships, lectureships, chairs, professorships, equipment funds, assistance to University colleges and departments, and support of the Performing Arts Hall. The quasi-endowments are a blend of accounts created from unrestricted (28%) and purpose restricted (72%) gifts. The distributions from the purpose restricted quasi-endowments are used as the donors have stipulated. This includes

Part IV Supplemental Information. Complete this part to provide the information required in Part I, line 2, and any other additional information.

Part I, Line 2: The University of Akron is the sole beneficiary of grants from the Foundation. The restrictions donors place on their contributions determine how the funds can be used by the University. The Foundation requires that a University restricted account be set up for each donor restriction. A database is used to attach the University account number to the Foundation account number. The database information is then used by the Foundation to ensure that the funds it transfers to the University end up in the proper matching accounts with the same donor restrictions. The Controller's Office at the University is supplied with copies of the donor agreements which list the gift restrictions. The members of the Controller's Office then uses these agreements to ensure the funds are used by the University as the donors have designated.

The Foundation's purpose is to operate exclusively for the benefit of The University of Akron. The funds transferred to the University are to be used in many ways, including the following: scholarships, fellowships, lectureships, chairs, professorships, equipment funds, assistance to University colleges and departments, improvement of the campus landscape, and support of the Performing Arts Hall.

Part III, line 4d: (1) The Foundation provided donor-directed assistance to the athletic program and the Performing Arts

Hall of The University of Akron. (2) The Foundation assisted The University of Akron with funding for the improvement of the educational opportunities in the University Park neighborhood.

Part VI, line 1a: The Executive Committee of the Foundation, between meetings of the Board of Directors, has all the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the Foundation except as such authority is limited by statute or by resolution of the Board of Directors.

According to the Foundation's Code of Regulations, the Board of Directors shall appoint an Executive Committee consisting of the the President of The University of Akron (UA), the senior development officer of UA, the chief academic officer of UA, the chief financial officer of UA, the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Executive Director of the Foundation, and not less than two other voting Directors who are members of the community at large, and who are not full-time employees of UA or its Governing Board.

All members of the Executive Committee are voting members except for the Executive Director, who is a non-voting member.

Each voting member of the Executive Committee is also a voting member of the Foundation's Board of Directors.

& R. Cary Blair

Part VI, line 11A: Each year, the Foundation's Executive Director, Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer meet to review the Form 990 before it is filed. Before filing, a copy of the Form 990 is provided to members of the Foundation's Executive Committee for their review.

Part VI, line 12c: Annually, the directors and officers of the Foundation complete a conflict of interest questionnaire. The questionnaire is designed to bring to light any interests that could give rise to conflicts. The Executive Director of the Foundation reviews the questionnaires and is charged with alerting the Board to any conflicts.

Part VI, line 13: The Foundation has no employees; thus eliminating the need for a whistleblower policy.

Part VI, line 14: The Foundation's records are currently maintained by University of Akron employees who follow the University's document retention and destruction policy.

Part VI, line 15 a & b: The Foundation does not compensate its Executive Director, other officers or key employees. Thus,
