Procedure for Monitoring Use of Grant Funds Inside U S	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	The College offers a wide variety of merit and need-based scholarships and awards to matriculating students. Merit awards are given in recognition of various achievements as specified in donors' correspondence and documents, or by College policy. Need-based awards are provided based on the income level, availability of awards offered elsewhere and similar standards. The College's Financial Aid Office uses various methods for the fair disbursement of grant funds within the requirements set by each grant source to monitor compliance. The College primarily makes scholarship grants that help offset tuition and other educational costs of the students, with most directly credited against the applicable student account, which assures proper use. The amount of the grant is adjusted by the Financial Aid Office, as necessary, based on any subsequent changes affecting the student's original eligibility.

Housing allowance or residence for personal use	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	The President is being provided a house as a convenience to the College to allow him to conduct business affairs and be available 24/7 to respond to emergent situations that may arise. The residence is for personal use and to entertain trustees, employees, students, donors, and guests of the College. IRS instructions to Form 990 require that the fair market value of housing provided to employees by their employer be reported on Form 990, Part VII, Section A and Schedule J, Part II. As a condition of employment, the President of Elmhurst College is required to reside at the college owned residence at 360 Cottage Hill Avenue in Elmhurst. The residence serves both as a personal residence as well as a venue for regular carrying on of College business. The College has determined that the value of the use of this personal residence is not considered taxable income to the President as provided for in Internal Revenue Code Section 119. For tax year 2011, the value of the President's use of the residence is conservatively estimated to be $56,400. During tax year 2011, the President, Stephen Alan Ray made the residence his home for the year. Schedule J, Part II, Column (D) includes $56,400 of non-taxable income associated with the use of the residence provided by the College.
Travel for companions	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	Travel expense reimbursement for companions is only allowed for the President as per his contract. According to his contract, when Dr. Ray's spouse is required to attend an event in which Dr. Ray is representing the College on official College business, the business related travel expenses for Dr. Ray's spouse will also be reimbursed by the College, when the spouse's travel is to conduct business on behalf of the college. This contract is reviewed by the Human Resources Committee and approved by the full Board of Trustees.
Personal services (e.g., mail, chauffeur, chef)	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	An outside service is used as needed to maintain or to provide any other cleaning services necessary for the business function of the President's house.

Form 990 Review Process	Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b	The final Form 990 and its various schedules were reviewed by the Key Officers of the organization prior to making it available to the Board of Trustees. After the Key Officers reviewed the form it was distributed to the Audit Committee of the Trustees at their Spring meeting. Identified necessary changes were incorporated following the board review process and a final copy of the filing was made available to all members of the board of trustees prior to filing.

Conflict of Interest Policy	Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c	Conflict of interest forms are sent to Trustees, Officers, Key Employees (as applicable) and others for completion. The completed forms are returned to and reviewed by the Board Audit Committee Chair. The Audit Committee Chair together with the Audit Committee is responsible for administration of this policy. Matters of concern are brought to the Chair of the Board of Trustees or the President. Approval of compensation transactions and other transactions covered by the policy are done through a review composed entirely of individuals who do not have any conflict of interest with respect to the arrangement or transaction at hand. Persons determined to have a conflict of interest are prohibited from participating in the governing body's deliberations and decisions in transactions which may relate to the conflict. They rely upon independent comparability data or valuations prior to making a determination. Matters related to compensation rely on external expertise in higher education.

Compensation Review Process	Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a	The President's salary is reviewed annually and determined by a process established by the Board of Trustees. The process begins with obtaining data from the College and University Professional Association for Human Resources (CUPA-HR) annual Salary Survey, periodically the Yaffe & Company Executive Compensation Survey, and the form 990 tax returns of comparable institutions are also reviewed. These surveys as well as the economic condition of Elmhurst College and other information concerning higher education are analyzed by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees with the assistance of the Vice President for Finance and Administration and periodically with input from an external consultant. The Human Resources Committee performs an annual formal evaluation process of the President in executive session. Performed in fiscal year 2011, every three years the committee performs an extensive evaluation involving various faculty, staff, students and external constituents. The Human Resources Committee recommends the salary revision to the full Board of Trustees who provides the final approval. Minutes of the Human Resources Committee document the determinations made during executive session. Top management's (Vice Presidents and Deans) salaries are reviewed annually by a process similar to all other employees. The President performs a formal evaluation. Using the CUPA-HR annual Salary Survey, the annual performance evaluation and the financial constraints of the College, the President then determines the salary revisions which are reviewed by the Human Resources Committee of the Board of Trustees. All other key employee salaries are reviewed annually by a similar process as the top management. Formal performance evaluations are performed by the supervisor of each key employee with recommendations for salary revisions provided to the top management employee over that area of responsibility. The evaluations and recommendations together with the comparison to the CUPA-HR annual Salary Survey and the preset budget for salary increases are reviewed by each top management administrator with recommendations presented to the President. Final approval is given by the President.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION ON TAX-EXEMPT BONDS	SCHEDULE K, PART I-III	PART I Information for Part I comes from the tax agreement and Form 8038 for each issue. The issuer EIN on the Forms 8038 of each of the 2005 transactions is the EIN for the Illinois Educational Facilities Authority (the issuer of the original 1998 and 1999 Bonds which were treated for Federal tax purposes as being currently refunded by the 2005 bonds). Although the 2005 Bonds still bear the name of the Illinois Educational Facilities Authority, the EIN of the Illinois Finance Authority should be used for Schedule K and is listed on the attached draft of Schedule K. The college will amend and file Forms 8038 to include the Illinois Finance Authority EIN for each of the 2005 Bonds to be consistent with Schedule K. The description of purpose for each issue is listed in Section 2.1 of the tax agreement executed by the college in connection with each issue. Additional information for the 2005 issues comes from paragraph 1 on page 1 of the tax agreement for each of those 2005 issues (containing information on the reissuance of the 1999 Bonds and the 1998 Bonds, respectively), Section 2.1 of the tax agreements for the 1999 Bonds and the 1998 Bonds (the description of the projects financed by such bonds) and the fourth paragraph of the Certificate Regarding the Financed Properties and Expenditure of Funds, executed by the college in connection with the issuance of the 1999 Bonds (which contains the name and description of the 1991 Bonds refunded by the 1999 Bonds). The amount of each of the 2005 issues benefitting the college (as included in the description of purposes) comes from Schedule A to each of the Forms 8038 submitted in connection with the 2005 issues. PART II Information for Part II, Columns B and C comes from the Form 8038 for such issues. Information for Part II, Column D comes from the rebate report prepared by Chapman and Cutler LLP for the 2003 Bonds. PART III The information in Part III comes from the College. Potential private use is addressed: 1. in Section 9 of the Certificate Regarding the Financed Properties and Expenditure of Funds for the 1998 Bonds (as reissued by the 2005 Bonds) (private use for these bonds is not addressed in the Schedule K because of the special rule regarding the refunding of pre-2003 issues), 2. in Section 9 of the Certificate Regarding the Financed Properties and Expenditure of Funds for the 1999 Bonds (as reissued by the 2005 Bonds) (private use for these bonds is not addressed in the Schedule K because of the special rule regarding the refunding of pre-2003 issues), 3. in Section 4 of the Project Certificate for the 2003 Bonds, and 4. in Section 4 of the Project Certificate for the 2007 Bonds. Information for Question 9 comes from the description of purposes described in Part I, above. Information for Question 10 comes from description of purposes described in Part I, above. Information for Questions 11 and 12 comes from Elmhurst.
