Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments

Check if Schedule O contains a response to any question in this Part III . . . . .

1 Briefly describe the organization’s mission

The mission of CJE SeniorLife (CJE) is to facilitate independence of older adults and to enhance quality of life by advocating on their behalf and by offering programs and services throughout the continuum of care for individuals, families and the community

2 Did the organization undertake any significant program services during the year which were not listed on the prior Form 990 or 990-EZ? Yes No

If “Yes,” describe these new services on Schedule O

3 Did the organization cease conducting, or make significant changes in how it conducts, any program services? Yes No

If “Yes,” describe these changes on Schedule O

4 Describe the exempt purpose achievements for each of the organization’s three largest program services by expenses

Section 501(c)(3) and 501(c)(4) organizations and section 4947(a)(1) trusts are required to report the amount of grants and allocations to others, the total expenses, and revenue, if any, for each program service reported

|    | The Weinberg Community for Senior Living is home to almost 220 older adults at either Gidwitz Place (Gidwitz) for Assisted Living or The Friend Center for Alzheimer's Care, one of the first and largest assisted living residences in the state The Weinberg Community is a safe, yet stimulating environment for older adults who need additional assistance with everyday tasks like medication reminders, bathing or housekeeping Residents also have many opportunities to participate in socialization and life enrichment activities Through primarily for a private pay population, approximately 30% of residents receive some type of financial assistance through a CJE-sponsored scholarship program, donor funds or state government subsidy Assisted living communities bridge the gap between living independently at home and placement in a skilled nursing facility A recent assessment at Gidwitz indicated that residents are requiring more assistance due to their increased age (average 85) and their vast medical needs To address the needs of the frailer, more medically-complex resident, CJE established the Gidwitz Plus program help residents "age in place" at Gidwitz instead of moving to a nursing home before it is necessary The average length of stay at Weinberg is 3 3 years compared to the national average of 2 2 years |

| CJE Independent Housing is for seniors who do not require personal or medical care, it allows them to live independently in the same neighborhoods where they raised their families with the security of shared life circumstances and availability of CJE services. The six apartment buildings (Farwell House, Jarvis House, Krasnow Residence, Swartzberg House, Village Center, and Levy House) offer studio, one or two-bedroom apartments. Residents are fully independent, but each apartment is equipped with an emergency response system that is monitored by CJE staff. |                |           |                                                |

| Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds      | Part V, Line 4   | The endowment funds which includes both board designated and temporarily restricted funds were established over a period of several years via donations and bequests received from donors' estates. Distributions are made from the endowment funds on an annual basis and transferred to CJE SeniorLife's undesignated fund to support operations and capital improvements. The endowment fund distributions are computed using a formal spending policy that has been approved by the Board of Directors.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |
| Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48 | Part X           | CJE, an Illinois not-for-profit corporation, and its controlled affiliates are exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. CJE files a Form 990 (Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax) annually. When this return is filed, it is highly certain that some positions taken would be sustained upon examination by the taxing authorities, while others are subject to uncertainty about the merits of the position taken or the amount of the position that would ultimately be sustained. Unrelated Business Income Tax (UBIT) is reported on Form 990T, as appropriate. The benefit of a tax position is recognized in the consolidated financial statements in the period during which, based on all available evidence, management believes that it is more likely than not that the position will be sustained upon examination, including the resolution of appeals or litigation processes, if any. Tax positions are not offset or aggregated with other positions. Tax positions that meet the "more likely than not" recognition threshold are measured as the largest amount of tax benefit that is more than 50 percent likely to be realized on settlement with the applicable taxing authority. The portion of the benefits associated with tax positions taken that exceeds the amount measured as described above is reflected as a liability for unrecognized tax benefits in the accompanying consolidated balance sheets along with any associated interest and penalties that would be payable to the taxing authorities upon examination. As of and during the years ended June 30, 2011 and 2010, there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified and recorded as liabilities. Forms 990 filed by CJE are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) up to three years from the extended due date of each return. Forms 990 filed by CJE are no longer subject to examination for the years ended June 30, 2007 and prior. |

|            |                  | Abandonment of Karmel Project - During fiscal year 2011, Council for Jewish Elderly (CJE) incurred an unrealized loss on a project intended to be the site of a 219-unit Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) in Deerfield, Illinois. The loss includes a write-down based on the appraised value of property plus various soft costs such as architectural and legal fees. The Karmel project was a joint effort between JFMC Facilities Corporation and Council for Jewish Elderly (CJE) but was terminated in light of the severe downturn in the real estate market, with Facilities and CJE sharing the loss. Abandonment of Karmel Project. Effective for fiscal year 2011, JFMC Facilities Corporation (FacCorp) entered into a triple net lease with Council for Jewish Elderly (CJE) for the Weinberg Senior Living Center and as a result rental income and operating expenses decreased by approximately $1.5 million. Under the terms of the triple net lease, CJE pays for all operating expenses of the property and the rental charge mainly consists of debt service plus management fees. Prior to this lease arrangement, FacCorp paid all operating expenses of the building and these costs were incorporated into the rent along with debt service and management fees. |
