Pt VI-B, Line 12c We require a renewed sign off on this policy each year by board and staff members.
We are aware of board members whose personal circumstances or professions could create a perception of conflict and the board ensures that no discussion of potentially affected business matters take place in their presence.
Board members do not speak to or vote on any matter in which they could be perceived to have a personal interest. We prohibit the hiring of immediate family members of existing staff or board members. Members of extended families may be hired but only staff to each year disclose any personal situation which could be perceived to create conflict of interest and such disclosures are reviewed and considered by management.
