STUDENT INSTRUCTION - Hillsdale College boasts a curriculum as extraordinary as its history. At the center of this curriculum is the core - the set of courses that each student takes, and that all students share. The idea behind a core curriculum is that all men and women, in order to be well-rounded individuals and good citizens, should share a certain core knowledge and understanding. Hillsdale's core curriculum contains the essence of the classical liberal arts education. Through it, our students are introduced to the history, the philosophical and theological ideas, the works of literature and the scientific discoveries that set Western Civilization apart. Students of the liberal arts learn to think well, communicate effectively and observe intelligently the workings of the physical world. Behind the idea of the liberal arts is the idea that truth is the basis of knowledge. Knowledge based on truth leads to caring about virtue and caring about virtue allows us to be truly free. The opposite idea - the idea that freedom simply means the ability to follow our appetites and passions - is what the Founders of America condemned as "license." A liberal arts education teaches us to distinguish liberty from license. America's Founders, following the greatest thinkers of our Western heritage, teach us that a people who confuse liberty and license will not be capable of maintaining free government. Thus, liberal arts education is not only essential for us to fulfill our individual potential, but it is also necessary for the preservation of free society. Hillsdale's faculty is the key to its academic excellence. We seek and attract faculty who are devoted, above all, to their students. They are serious about learning. They are dedicated to the search for truth. They are, in the fullest sense of the term, a "teaching" faculty. Hillsdale College offers 26 traditional majors, seven interdisciplinary majors, nine pre-professional programs and a certificate program in journalism. Students at Hillsdale are prepared to become leaders worthy of their heritage. They come to understand what it means to deserve freedom and what it takes to preserve it. They come to appreciate their debt to their forebears for the blessings of liberty that they enjoy, and to recognize their duty to their children to pass those blessings on.

STUDENT SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS - Hillsdale College follows its historic mission to provide "all persons who wish, irrespective of nation, color, or sex, a literary and scientific education ," as it has since it was founded in 1844, independently, without the strings and entanglements that come with government subsidies. It is famous for its refusal to accept federal taxpayer funding, even in the form of federal student aid. In 1984, the Supreme Court handed down a decision in the case of "Grove City v. Bell" that threatened Hillsdale College's independence. The Court ruled that any educational institution with even one student who received federal aid would be considered an "indirect recipient institution" and thereby subject to federal regulations. Hillsdale's Board of Trustees acted swiftly and decisively to uphold the school's longstanding mission. They notified that Department of Education that Hillsdale College would not accept federal tuition assistance for its students, but would replace it with privately funded scholarships and grants. Hillsdale College is unique in this respect among American institutions of higher learning. In the fall of 1985, Hillsdale College's Student Independence Grant and Loan Fund was established. It continues to this day, assisting hundreds of deserving students each year who desire a rigorous classical liberal arts education. The net cost of replacing federal financial aid since 1985 now exceeds $67 million. Nearly $17 million will be awarded in privately funded scholarships and grants during the 2011/2012 academic year, over $6 million of this total is direct replacement of the federal and state grants, scholarships that Hillsdale students would receive at nearly every other college or university in the nation. Approximately 90 percent of Hillsdale students qualify for and receive financial assistance.

4c	(Code) (Expenses $ 7,046,366 including grants of $ 0) (Revenue $ 584,015)
STUDENT SERVICES - An integral part of the Hillsdale College experience is our student service area. The first encounter is with our Admissions Office which had a 14% increase in applicants from the previous year and each year the competition for admission to Hillsdale is increasing. As the result Hillsdale is able to be more selective in their acceptance of students. Our fall 2010 freshman class of approximately 411 students joined a current student body representing 36 states and 8 foreign countries. Further, an average ACT composite score of 28.63 and 1970 on the SAT is indicative of the high quality of student Hillsdale is recruiting. Hillsdale is not just about life in the classroom. Because preparation for leadership is one of Hillsdale's primary goals, some of the most important lessons can be learned outside the classroom. Whether it is athletics, student government, volunteer opportunities, Greek life or the fine and performing arts, students are involved in a variety of co-curricular activities. The GOAL (Great Opportunities for Assistance and Leadership) program is Hillsdale's primary volunteer program. Through it our students dedicated over 20,000 hours of service in the local community and surrounding region during the past year. Activities include tutoring, mentoring, basic living assistance and simple companionship. Nearly one-third of Hillsdale's student body is involved in one of our seven national fraternities and sororities. These Greek chapters encourage philanthropic activities, develop leadership skills and provide a special opportunity to form lifelong friendships. Hillsdale's placement record for graduating seniors has averaged 97 percent over the past three years with the most recent class (spring 2010) having a 97% placement rate within six months of graduation and 19% attending graduate or professional school.

Ident if ier	Return Reference	Explanation
SchD_P03_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part III, Line 4	Alwin C. Carus Coin Collection - the Carus Coin Collection consists of a vast array of foreign and domestic currency divided into three smaller displays: an ancient coin collection, an American coinage collection, and a history of money collection that includes early non-metal forms of currency, previous metals, and modern fiat currency. The collection was left to Hillsdale College to be used for educational purposes; it is a tool for teaching economics, history, finance, and classics. Portions of the collection are exhibited publicly at Hillsdale College events across the country, extending the educational benefit of the coins to a much wider audience that includes business owners, educators, community leaders, and other interested citizens. Special Library Collections - A quality library is an essential element of every institution of learning. It exists for the benefit of both students and faculty, as well as for the community in which it resides. In addition to the main study and research collections, the Hillsdale College Mossey Library contains a number of rare and special holdings, including the Ludwig von Mises Library and the Richardson Heritage Room: early and rare editions of Ludwig von Mises, the early twentieth-century Austrian economist and author of such seminal works as "The Theory of Money and Credit" and "Human Action," chose Hillsdale College to be the recipient of his personal library, because of the school's commitment to teach the principles of freedom. This important collection of books, pamphlets, and papers related to free-market economics is housed in the Ludwig von Mises Room in Mossey Library and is available to Hillsdale faculty and students for research. The Richardson Heritage Room contains a collection of rare- and first-edition books that relate to our country's founding and early American history. A bibliography of the collection is available at www.hillsdale.edu. LIBERTY WALK - The mission of Hillsdale College, which has guided the school since its 1844 founding, is to preserve the blessings of civil and religious liberty through "the diffusion of learning." The Liberty Walk project is a marvelous example of teaching and learning through objects of art. This collection of over-life-size statues provides visible testimony to the lives of historic defenders of freedom. It calls the citizen observer to vigilance in defending and upholding the principles of freedom. It stands as a constant reminder of the precious nature of freedom and the strength and sacrifice required to preserve it. To date, the collection includes six statues: the Alpha Kappa Phi Civil War Soldiers' Monument, 1895; George Washington, 2003; Winston Churchill, 2004; Margaret Thatcher, 2008; Thomas Jefferson, 2009; and Abraham Lincoln, 2009. A statue of Ronald Reagan is scheduled to be dedicated in fall 2011. Future additions to the collection, as funding becomes available, will include Frederick Douglass, James Madison, and Ransom Dunn, who figured prominently in the early days of Hillsdale College history. All statues have been funded through private donations. PRE-COLUMBIAN ART COLLECTION - A recently donated collection of statues, pottery, jewelry, and carved or woven vessels; these artifacts date from as early as 500 B.C. to as late as 1532 A.D., and originate from various regions of Central and South America. Representing cultures such as the Mayans and Incas, they represent art in the Americas before the introduction of European cultural influence. The artifacts will teach students, especially those studying Prehistoric and Non-Western art, the deep appreciation and understanding that can only be obtained through viewing such artifacts directly.
SchD_P05_S00_L04	Schedule D, Part V, Line 4	As stated previously, Hillsdale College is an independent 4-year liberal arts institution. We do not accept any federal or state monies for the operation of the College. Our endowment funds are invested in such a manner as to preserve and protect our independence from government funds. Earnings from our endowment are used to provide scholarships to our students as well as funds for the operations of the College.

SchE_P01_S00_L03	Schedule E, Part I, Line 3	Hillsdale College's policy of non-discrimination is written into its original Articles of Association, which were adopted in 1853. They state, "The object of this institution is and shall be to furnish to all persons who wish, irrespective of nationality, color, or sex, a literary, scientific or theological education as comprehensive and thorough as is usually pursued in other colleges or theological schools in this country, and to combine with this, such moral, social and artistic instruction and culture as will best develop the minds and improve the hearts of the students." Hillsdale College continues to be governed by these words, and they are incorporated into the school's more recent mission statement. These words are included in the College catalog and they are featured prominently in the Hillsdale College Honor Code.
SchE_P01_S00_L04	Schedule E, Part I, Line 4	In 1844 Hillsdale opened its doors to everyone and obtained the nation's 1st collegiate charter (1850) that prohibited discrimination based on race, religion, or sex. The 1st Michigan college (the nation's 2nd) to admit women on a par with men, it was the nation's 2nd to confer the B.A. to women. A pre-Civil War leader in nondiscrimination, it refused to specify race on records or to base decisions or policies on the race of its students, faculty or staff. Today it bases admissions/hiring practices on qualification, competence and merit without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability or any other legally protected status. The Catalog states: "The College values the merit of each unique individual, rather than succumbing to the dehumanizing, discriminatory trend of so-called 'social justice' and 'multicultural diversity,' which judges individuals not as individuals, but as members of a group and which pits one group against other competing groups."

Identifier	Return Reference	Explanation
SchI_P01_S00_L02	Schedule I, Part I, Line 2	Hillsdale College awards both scholarships and grants to its students. Students can receive a scholarship at matriculation in the form of merit or performance scholarship. Merit scholarship is awarded by committee based upon an incoming student's high school gpa, standardized test scores, and other, more subjective criteria such as community involvement, interviews, essays, letters of recommendation, and admissions rank. Performance scholarships are awarded by budget managers (typically coaches and fine arts chairs) based upon their own evaluations. Criteria for renewal of merit scholarships generally requires students to maintain a 3.0 accumulative gpa. The Financial Aid Office polices this 3.0 requirement-and any other scholarship criteria which may be attached to privately-funded, named scholarships. Correspondence is sent to students at the end of each semester pertaining to their progress toward scholarship requirements. Students may become eligible for additional scholarship after their freshman year based upon classroom performance and campus involvement. These scholarship decisions are also made by committee after a review of scholarship budgets and criteria. With respect to grants, Hillsdale College students may become eligible for grant monies only by demonstrating significant need on Hillsdale College's Confidential Family Financial Statement (CFFS) or the College Board's CSS Profile. All new applicants are required to submit a copy of the most recent signed tax information of parent(s) and student and any other necessary documents for complete verification of eligibility. These needs tests must be resubmitted each year for renewal consideration and adjustments to amounts may be made based upon changes in demonstrated need. In addition to demonstrated financial need, grant recipients are required to meet academic standards of progress, exhibit good citizenship and moral character, and be enrolled at least half time. The Financial Aid Office monitors these additional components each semester using information provided by the Dean's Office and Registrar's Office.

SchJ_P01_S00_L01a	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	By the nature of the position, the CEO is required to fulfill several obligations/commitments which may result in travelling first-class and/or charter to accommodate required appointments. Further, his spouse may accompany him as well as dictated by her required presence for an event. The CEO has available to him a discretionary fund (budgeted each year) for assisting individuals and/or projects in need of support. Further, the CEO is required to reside in college-owned housing for the purpose of being a presence on campus and for entertainment purposes. As the result of living in a college-owned residence, the College provides, as with all campus buildings, light housekeeping. The position of CEO also requires membership in certain social/academic organizations and therefore, the college provides the dues/fees associated with that membership.
