Footnote for uncertain tax position under FIN 48 (Part X)

The Corporation follows the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting

Standards Codification guidance on income taxes, Accounting for Uncertainties in Income Taxes, which addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under this guidance, BDCH may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions common to health care organizations include such matters as the following: the tax exempt status of each entity, the continued tax exempt status of bonds issued and various positions relative to potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBIT). UBIT is reported on Form 990T, as appropriate. The benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. The guidance on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes also addresses de-recognition, classification, interest and penalties on income taxes, and accounting in interim periods. At June 30, 2011 and 2010 there were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities.

Forms 990 filed by the Corporation are subject to examination by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) up to three years from the extended due date of each return.
