Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used		Proposals for funding were received via outreach made by various board members for programs of which they were aware. This method was preferred versus use of open applications, which may create a competitive atmosphere in the community. No gift would be given without some type of restriction on its use and/or what would be received in consideration of the gift. Once possible gifts were determined, it would go to board vote for approval. Once the organizations were notified of funding and given the money, they were asked to submit a report to the Board showing the progress of their project.
Additional Supplemental Information		In the year ended 6/30/10, the Foundation committed to giving grants in the amount of $50,000 to an undetermined recipient for use in a walking path behind St. Joseph's Hospital. This grant was not yet paid as of 6/30/11.
