Part III Statement of Program Service Accomplishments (continued)

Youth Exchange Services--$10,853--A program where American Youth and Foreign Youth can visit each others country and study the others culture. Conferences, conventions and meetings for training and educational purposes throughout the Rotary year--$32,178.

Part VI---The annual filing of the IRS Form 990 is completed by the Organization CFO and reviewed by at least 2 others and ultimately to the full governing board prior to submission to the IRS. The District has specific corporate policies and procedures governing control procedures for disbursements and reimbursements. The District has an annual conference wherein the annual business meeting is conducted. Each member club is asked to send delegate(s) appointed by the club president to vote on such business matters as election of Governing Board and District Officers, approval of financial reports and budget for the following year. There may be other new or old business discussed and/or voted on at this meeting. There are currently 64 member clubs in the organization and each member club has one or more votes depending on membership of the member club. The Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws were approved by Rotary International prior to filing with the Secretary of the State in Minnesota

Part VI Section C 19--The organization makes its governing documents available to any member request at the annual conference. All governing documents must be pre-approved by Rotary International. All governing document including any conflict of interest policies and procedure must be consistent with the Rotary International Code of Policies.
