Part VI - Section B, 12-C

As board members change jobs (this is rare as most are retired) they self-report new requirement(s) that could involve a possible conflict of interest. Any time the possibility of a "conflict of interest" issue comes up the individual board member will excuse themselves from the meeting until that issue is resolved by the remaining members.

Part VI - Section B, 15B

Compensation for our two part-time employees is determined by comparing their experience, previous employment, "gifts" they bring to the position along with their salary requests. (Both employees currently consider part of their jobs as "giving back" to the community in which they reside and "pay back" for the education their children received while attending Davenport Community Schools.)
