Facts And Circumstances Test
Facts and Circumstances to be Considered a Publicly Supported Organization under 509(a)(1) Hill Top Heritage Foundation (the Foundation) fails to meet the public support test for the years ended June 30, 2003 through June 30, 2011. However, based on the following facts and circumstances, the organization should continue to be recognized as a publicly supported organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1). Ten-Percent of SupportThe total amount of public support for the organization during the above-mentioned period is 27.87%. Therefore, the total public support is greater than the required 10%. Attraction of Public SupportThe organization does not receive more than 33% of its support from government units or from contributions from the general public due to the fact that each year it receives a substantial contribution from one estate. Although the Foundation maintains a continuous program for solicitation from the general public, this estate has given a large donation to the Foundation every year. In 2005, the organization received large contributions from another estate and another donor. In addition to these funds, the Foundation continues to conduct many fundraisers on an annual basis that the general public support. In addition, they have a part time employee that solicits support for the organization via writing articles for the local newspapers regarding the organization, meeting with potential donors and performing grant writing. Sources of SupportThe Foundation does not receive support from a single family; rather it receives support from members of the general public. The organization received a portion of its support from individuals in the community through various events. Representative Governing BodyThe Foundation is served by a governing body that represents the interests of the public; it does not represent the interests of the donors of the Foundation. These representatives ensure that the organization meets the needs of the healthcare community. Based on the above facts and circumstances, Hill Top Heritage Foundation should continue to be considered as publicly supported under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1).
Facts and Circumstances to be Considered a Publicly Supported Organization under 509(a)(1) Hill Top Heritage Foundation (the Foundation) fails to meet the public support test for the years ended June 30, 2003 through June 30, 2011. However, based on the following facts and circumstances, the organization should continue to be recognized as a publicly supported organization under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1). Ten-Percent of SupportThe total amount of public support for the organization during the above-mentioned period is 27.87%. Therefore, the total public support is greater than the required 10%. Attraction of Public SupportThe organization does not receive more than 33% of its support from government units or from contributions from the general public due to the fact that each year it receives a substantial contribution from one estate. Although the Foundation maintains a continuous program for solicitation from the general public, this estate has given a large donation to the Foundation every year. In 2005, the organization received large contributions from another estate and another donor. In addition to these funds, the Foundation continues to conduct many fundraisers on an annual basis that the general public support. In addition, they have a part time employee that solicits support for the organization via writing articles for the local newspapers regarding the organization, meeting with potential donors and performing grant writing. Sources of SupportThe Foundation does not receive support from a single family; rather it receives support from members of the general public. The organization received a portion of its support from individuals in the community through various events. Representative Governing BodyThe Foundation is served by a governing body that represents the interests of the public; it does not represent the interests of the donors of the Foundation. These representatives ensure that the organization meets the needs of the healthcare community. Based on the above facts and circumstances, Hill Top Heritage Foundation should continue to be considered as publicly supported under Internal Revenue Code Section 509(a)(1).
