Part I & II - Revenue, Expenses, and Changes in Net Assets or Fund Balances and Balance Sheets:

The Gruber Foundation held no assets as of its initial year-end. Funding occurred shortly after its year-end once the Foundation had received its determination letter from the IRS stating that it qualifies as a Section 501(c)(3) Type 1 supporting organization to Yale University.

Part III - Primary Exempt Purpose:

The Gruber Foundation ("the Corporation") is a nonprofit corporation organized and operated exclusively for charitable, scientific, and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The purposes for which the Corporation was formed are to engage in activities that support the mission of Yale University, an organization exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, through awards of international prizes to renowned scientists and grants to outstanding young scientists to honor exceptional achievements and encourage future advances in basic scientific research; thereby improving the lives of humankind and furthering our understanding of the universe; programs that support outreach and education to further global justice and women's rights; funding of science fellowships at Yale University to advance knowledge and encourage scientific achievements that will better the human condition; and engagement in such other activities as are consistent with such purposes and the Corporation's tax-exempt status.

- Do not complete Part II unless you have already been granted an automatic 3-month extension on a previously filed Form 8868.

Electronic filing (e-file). You can electronically file Form 8868 if you need a 3-month automatic extension of time to file (6 months for a corporation required to file Form 990-T), or an additional (not automatic) 3-month extension of time. You can electronically file Form 8868 to request an extension of time to file any of the forms listed in Part I or Part II with the exception of Form 8870, Information Return for Transfers Associated With Certain Personal Benefit Contracts, which must be sent to the IRS in paper format (see instructions). For more details on the electronic filing of this form, visit www.irs.gov/efile and click on e-file for Charities & Nonprofits.
