Form 990, Part III, Line 4d, Other Program Services:

FIF Local Chapters: FIFNC directly manages and operates six local FIF chapters that served 625 families each year in 14 counties. Individuals or families affected by developmental disability or traumatic brain injury (TBI) (of one of the family members) apply to the chapter for assistance. Chapter staff find local resources including private businesses to pay for the need to the greatest extent possible. In doing so, the need is met and public awareness is also increased. The people assisted are also offered ways to assist other families if they choose, through our Time Bank, Management Teams, or Lifetime Connections Programs.

Lifeline Project: This program assists people (of any age) with developmental disabilities or TBI living in a county not currently supported by one of our FIF chapters that receive state and county funding. This program is supported by a small amount of state funding, and private donations and grants. It serves 45 counties.

Lifetime Connections: This program offers unique support and future planning services to people with all types of disabilities and their families through two core services, future planning education and support, and Personal Networks. These services provide an alternative or addition to traditional formal services. Lifetime Connections assists families to ensure quality of life for their loved ones with disabilities once the primary care provider (usually parents) is too elderly or deceased. Families are assisted to put in place their future plans, including wills, special needs trusts, etc. and to develop Personal Networks for current (and future) quality of life and peace of mind. This program is currently funded through private pay (by lifetime members) and through a federal grant specific to people with TBI with an emphasis on returning veterans.

FIFNC Time Bank: This program connects community members through a system for sharing skills and services among the community membership. FIFNC Time Bank is focused on people with developmental disabilities but also includes people without, and thus offers community integration and opportunities for serving/giving by people with disabilities. FIFNC's role is to develop membership and coordinate communication among members.

Technical Assistance to all Chapters: FIF has a comprehensive technical assistance component that strengthens the chapters and provides long-term oversight to all 14 chapters. This is provided through Site Visits, monthly conference calls and Webinars, Strategic Planning sessions, an annual Summit for all Chapters, and Database training on an ongoing basis.

In FY 2010 - 2011, our local Chapters and Lifeline Project together served 650 families affected by disabilities and whose average annual income was $15,828 or 77% of federal poverty level. To serve these families FIFNC stretched its public funding by leveraging $.34 on the dollar through contributions by local businesses and individuals.

Lifetime Connections program managed personal networks of 4 - 10 volunteers per person with disability, and met (38%) or made progress

The Time Bank coordinated membership of 67 members (55% of whom have developmental disabilities or are family members). Of these 67 members, 70% exchanged 112 services among themselves. FIFNC Technical Assistance to Chapters included 12 monthly Chapters calls (for providing training and information), one annual training event, and 12 site visits to chapters by technical assistance staff who met with chapter staff as well as management team members (volunteers who set policy for the chapters). The outcome of Technical Assistance this year was to support the development of two completely new chapters and to increase achievement ratings for FIFNC's Core Indicators of Chapter Health.

Expenses $ 438,288. including grants of $ 0. Revenue $ 0.
