Description of Intended Use of Endowment Funds	Part V, Line 4	Endowment funds are held to provide investment earnings to be used for scholarships and other needs of the college and to match future endowment gifts
Description of Uncertain Tax Positions Under FIN 48	Part X	In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48 (FIN 48), Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, an interpretation of FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 740, Income Taxes. FIN 48 attempts to set out a consistent framework for preparers to use to determine the appropriate level of tax reserve to maintain for uncertain tax positions. This interpretation of ASC 740 uses a two-step approach wherein tax benefit is recognized if a position is more-likely-than-not to be sustained. The amount of the benefit is then measured to be the highest tax benefit which is greater than 50% likely to be realized. FIN 48 also sets out disclosure requirements to enhance transparency of an entity's tax reserves. The Organization adopted the current accounting standard related to unrecognized tax benefits on January 1, 2009. The Organization files required income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal, state and local income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2007. As a result of the implementation of FIN 48, the Organization has concluded no material uncertain tax positions have been taken on any open tax returns. For the current year, the Organization believes all tax positions are fully supportable by existing Federal law and related interpretations and there are no uncertain tax positions to consider in accordance with FIN 48.

	Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Men and women of substance inevitably are involved in the affairs of other institutions and organizations. An effective board and administration cannot consist of individuals entirely free from at least perceived conflicts of interest. Although most such potential conflicts that arise will be deemed to be inconsequential, it is everyone's responsibility to ensure that the board is aware of situations that involve personal, familial, or business relations that could be troublesome for the Foundation. Thus, the Foundation requires each Director and Officer upon election or appointment and annually thereafter: (1) To review this policy, (2) To disclose in writing any possible personal, familial or business relationships that reasonably could give rise to a conflict or the appearance of a conflict involving the Foundation, and (3) To acknowledge by his or her signature that he or she is in compliance with the letter and spirit of this policy. In addition, if a matter arises during the course of the year that would have required disclosure, the Director or Officer will be required to promptly disclose such matter in writing.
