SchJ_P01_S00_L01a	Schedule J, Part I, Line 1a	As part of the President's employment contract, the President is required to live in a house provided by the University. Many University events are held at his residence. Housekeeping services are provided to support these events. His employment contract also provides for travel for companions and a discretionary spending account. Companion travel is for University related activities. The discretionary spending account is to further the mission and interests of the University, consistent with its 501 (c) (3) status. The President provides an accounting of the use of such funds annually to the Audit Committee of the Board of Trustees.
SchJ_P01_S00_L03	Schedule J, Part I, Line 3	Compensation survey data comes from the College and University Personnel Association survey. A three-year historical salary comparison of President's salary data is used to develop two comparison groups, the University aspirational peers and the compensation study comparison group. This data is used by the Compensation Committee to prepare a written employment contract.
SchJ_P01_S00_L04	Schedule J, Part I, Line 4	The University and John Butler entered into a Separation Agreement which included continuation of salary and benefits for Mr. Butler for a six month period, which ended in 2010.
