FIN 48 defines the threshold for recognizing tax return positions in the financial statements as "more likely than not" that the position is sustainable, based on its technical merits. FIN 48 also provides guidance on the measurement, classification and disclosure of tax return positions in the financial statements. In October 2008, the FASB voted to continue the deferral of FIN 48, for non-public companies and not-for-profits, for an additional year until fiscal years beginning after December 15, 2008. Management adopted FIN 48 beginning with the financial statements ending June 20, 2010. There has been no material impact on its financial statements since the adoption of FIN 48.
