Part I, Line 2 - Procedures for Monitoring Use of Grants Funds in U.S.

A scholarship committee of the Rotary Club selects scholarship recipients based on established criteria including high school academic performance and family financial need. All scholarship funds are sent to the recipient's college of choice and not to the individual. A certain grade point average must be maintained in order for the scholarship to continue the next year.

A charitable committee of the Rotary Club selects the charitable organizations who will receive grant funding. Charities are mostly local organizations well known in the County. No formal monitoring of the grant funds is considered necessary although Rotary Club members are well informed of the charity's purpose and achievements.
