The Howard and Georgeanna Jones
Foundation for Reproductive Medicine
EIN 54-1265842
Support for Schedule A

The following factors confirm that the Howard and Georgeanna Jones Foundation for Reproductive Medicine (EIN 54-1265842) continues to qualify as a publicly supported organization under the facts-and-circumstances test of Treasury Regulation § 1.170(A)-9(f)(3):

(i) Ten Percent-of-Support Limitation. The Foundation's public and governmental support not only exceeds the 10% minimum but is approaching the 33 1/3% safe harbor.

(ii) Attraction of Public Support. The Foundation solicits contributions to further medical research and education through its semiannual newsletter Jones Journal, a new website www.jonesfound.org, publications about medical research progress, periodic symposia and conferences, and a mailing list that includes over 2500 physicians, researchers, individual supporters, corporations and foundations.

(iii) Percentage of Financial Support. The Foundation's public support percentage for 2010 is 30.04%, barely short of the 33 1/3% safe harbor. Based on current projections, the Foundation anticipates that its governmental and public support for 2011 will exceed 35%.

(iv) Sources of Support. The Foundation receives support from a broad and diverse group of donors. It recently sent an appeal to over 2500 supporters in connection with a major challenge grant offer and already has raised 60% of the total from 54 unrelated donors. The total for the challenge grant endowment fund is currently at $1,227,762.00 in pledges and cash.

(v) Representative Governing Body. The Foundation's 22-member governing board includes six physicians with extensive experience in endocrinology or obstetrics and gynecology, seven lawyers, one of whom who has extensive experience in health care issues, three bankers, two chief executives of major businesses, two retired community volunteers, an individual with a doctorate in economics and the Foundation's longtime executive director. The board benefits from the advice of two other groups. The Medical Executive Committee consists of six physicians who are leaders in the field of reproductive medicine. They review grant applications and educational programs and advise on the awarding of a prize for a paper on public policy. The Medical Advisory Council consists of 21 physicians, also leaders in reproductive medicine, who assist in reviewing grant applications and selecting grantees and provide other advice to the board as requested.

(vi) Availability of Public Facilities or Services; Public Participation in Programs or Policies. The Foundation informs medical professionals and the interested public about medical research developments and available grants through its semiannual journal and its website. It is currently organizing a symposium to address healthcare coverage issues, including the benefits to employers and insurance companies of covering in vitro fertilization. It will distribute summaries of the seminar proceedings to medical schools, the healthcare industry and the public. It also plans to sponsor an annual medical lectureship, a visiting foreign scholar at Eastern Virginia Medical School, and a monthly ethics seminar.
